

Cheylin Tipoff fundraiser finds fun as well as funds

The Cheylin Tipoff fundraiser for the technology improvements, held on Dec. 28, was a great success with many laughs, great food, and lots of support shown for the Cheylin schools. Before the games started, the preliminary three point shooting contest got underway between all the participating players. The two women & two men that made the most baskets advanced to the finals, which were completed during the half time of the men's game. Cassie Rucker and Nick Angelos were the winners of the three point contest.

The girls' teams were split between years, and identified by either a grey or navy blue shirts. The navy blue team, coached by Norm Dorsch, consisted of Amy McCarty, Connie Knapp-McCain, Iliana Reynoso, Cristi Antholz, Darci Schields, Sara Wilson, Bailey Pfortmiller and Lori Janicke. The grey team, coached by Troy Burr, consisted of Ashley Raile, Cassie Rucker, Jill Paugh, Denise Keltz, Rochelle Hubbard, Loretta Rucker and Kelly Leach. The grey team won, and were presented with Christmas ball medals.

During the half time of the women's game, a money grab was sponsored by Western State Bank, The Bank, First National Bank, and Peoples State Bank. Each person could "buy" a chance to grab up to $100 scattered all across the gym floor in a matter of seconds. Three students, Dylan Ketzner, Logan McCarty, and Joseph Augusta, had a great time running around picking up the one dollar bills. Caleb Keltz and Betty Jo Schultz were the adult winners for the money grab.

Before the men's game, the tumbling class taught by Ailysa Blair and Lanece Carpenter performed for the crowd. Kolbie Leach, Hallee Antholz, Hayden Ketzner, Brady Ketzner, Taylor McCarty, Hayden Lennox, Gabrielle Pochop, Kohen Pochop, Cooper Paugh, Joseph Augusta, and Ashlynn Schields were able to show the crowd a few tumbles/exercise they have learned thus far.

The men's games started with Norm Dorsch coaching Levi Pochop, Dustin Hubbard, Caleb Keltz, Mike McCarty, Nick Ketzner, Bobby Hawkins, Heath Antholz, Travis Angelos, Nick Angelos and Josh Keltz

as the grey team. Dexter Leach coached Cliff Leach, Adam Orten, Lincoln Pochop, David Banister, Vance Churchwell, Jeremiah White, Nathan Sowers, Tyler Knapp, Tyrel Robben, Sam Hengan, Jerney Boom and Philip Delong as the navy blue team. After lots of sweat, squeaking bones or shoes, the navy blue team won by one point! They also received the medals of the Christmas ball.

Max Keltz and Anthony Blair were eager to ref both games. To all that donated of your time, your cooking/baking and monetary gifts we thank you. This could not have happened without all the support. Thank you to the committee that organized this event. $1748.82 was donated to go toward the technology improvements. We hope to see you all again December 27, 2014!

Contest has 111 teams sign up

The 2014 Midwest FoxPro Coyote Calling Contest was held last weekend, with teams from Kansas, Colorado, and Nebraska, as well as many other mid-west states participating. Teams arrived in St. Francis Friday evening to register with the organizers. Check in was located at the Cheyenne County Fairgrounds. After check in, the teams scattered to their various hunting locations to prepare for the Saturday morning start of the contest. Sunday afternoon, the teams returned with their coyotes, to tally up their harvest, and see how their results stacked up against the competition.

fewer coyotes than last year, but we were still pleased with the results. Everything went smoothly. We were really happy with the weekend." The Frontier Arms Class, a new class this year sponsored by Frontier Arms of St. Francis, was won by a team that harvested 13 coyotes. The Hornady Novice Class was won by a team which harvested 8 coyotes. There were a lot of comments about how well prepared, and how well run the contest was again this year. "I think this weekend was another great success. We are already looking forward to next year," said Mr. Rueb. Complete results of the 2014 event will be available soon online at midwestcoyotecallingevent.com.

Congratulations! Bird City!
