Girls suffer losses

By Casey McCormick
It was a difficult week for the Lady Cougars who struggled to find a way to win against three area opponents.

Cheylin 46, Atwood 49
In the game that gave Cheylin the best opportunity to come away with a win, they could not hold off Atwood in overtime. Sara Moore fouled out and Cheylin could only score three points to the other team's five.

"We played well," said head coach Dennis Hengen, "but we didn't put up enough shots."
The Cougars were up by five with two minutes left to go in regulation. But Atwood came back to tie and force the overtime.

Moore and Brittany Kehlbeck led the squad in scoring with 14 and 12 respectively.

Rebounds: Moore nine, Young five, Hubbard five, Afton Krien two, Kehlbeck two and Banister one.

Cheylin 32, Brewster 65
The ladies had their hands full against Brewster. "We only shot 21 percent (from two point range)," said Coach Hengen, "when you shoot that poorly (you are) not going to win ball games."

B: 13 18 24 10 65

Points: Banister eight, Hubbard eight, Krien six, Kehlbeck five, Young four and Kori Underwood one.

Cheylin 31, Sharon Springs 48
The Cougars played well but were forced to play without their offensive leader as Moore was out with a bad ankle sprain. "We really missed Sara," said Coach Hengen.

Banister stepped up, providing 16 points and Kehlbeck also produced 10 but it was not enough.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
In the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil,
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life.
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Amen
