

Veterans honored —

VETERAN'S DAY WAS celebrated at the American Legion Hall in Bird City. (Clockwise from above) Lee Amsberry presents the colors. Former candidate for state representative, Bob Strevey from Norcatur, recounts his experience in the Vietnam War. American Legion Auxiliary president, Hulda Dorsch shares a laugh with the crowd. The commander of the Bird City American Legion, Charles Coleman, presents Clarence and Martin Busse with mementos to commemorate their becoming 60-year members of the American Legion.

Times staff photos by Casey McCormick