Holidays coming, food is needed

The holiday season is just weeks away and food is needed for the Cheyenne County Food Pantry.

"The holiday season is here," Candi Douthit, Food Pantry coordinator, said. "We, at the Pantry, are already preparing for giving boxes of food to those less fortunate but there is not nearly enough food this year.

"We will be delivering 47 Thanksgiving baskets on Friday and it is going to take almost everything we have on the Pantry shelves."

Some of the items that are always needed for the Food Pantry include: canned fruit, vegetables, soups and meats, spaghetti and sauce, macaroni and cheese, peanut butter, jelly and jam, pancake mix and syrup, cereal (hot or cold), Helpers (hamburger, tuna, chicken), boxed potatoes, fruit drinks, coffee (1 pound cans), hot chocolate mix, Jellow, pudding,

WITH THE HOLIDAYS around the corner, the Cheyenne County Food Pantry is in need of more food. Among the many helping collect are Pat Brunow and Cathy Loop of the Good Samaritan Village.

cake and muffin mixes, flour, sugar, bread, condiments (catsup, mustard, Miracle Whip, pickles), crackers, pasta, paper items (toilet tissue, paper towels, Kleenex), chicken, hamburger, bacon, turkey, ham.

There are several places where people can leave food items. One is at St. Francis Super's, or at the Food Pantry or to the Chamber office, both in the basement of the courthouse (use the handicapped entrance).

Money donations can be taken to First National Bank.

Anyone wanting more information, needing food picked up or know of a family in need should call Mrs. Douthit at 785-332-3623.

Hunting tips

The Lawn Ridge 4-H Club would like to share some hunting safety tips.

- Take firearm safety and hunting classes. If your children will be hunting with you, make sure they take classes and pass them too. Know what the laws are and follow them. Do not hunt with people who do not obey the rules or do not hunt safely.

- Never hunt out of season.
- Never hunt when it's too dark to see clearly.

- Never "baby sit" while hunting. If your children aren't old enough to be capable members of your team, they shouldn't be there.

- Never use your gun to support you while you move around.

- Always treat your gun as though it's loaded. Never play around with it, and never point it at anything you don't plan to shoot.

- Store firearms and ammunition separately and do not transport loaded firearms.

- Never shoot at sound or a flash of color.

- Wear appropriate clothing to alert others to your presence. Make sure your children do too.

- Never think you will never make a mistake - and never think an accident will never happen to you or your children.
