Thank You

The family of Mildred Warner wish to express their sincere appreciation for the excellent care from Dr. Mary Beth Miller, the nurses and staff of the Cheyenne County Hospital. Words cannot express our appreciation for all the love shown during her stay in the hospital.

A very special thank you to my friends who remembered me with phone calls, cards and especially your prayers during my recent stay in the hospital in Lawrence. Vernetta Haack

The family of Mildred Warner would like to express our appreciation to the Good Samaritan Village and staff for the good care she received during her short stay with you.

Thanks to Farrel, Dunns, Dale and Becky for cleaning out our driveway and walks. Ruben, Bernice and Kathleen

The family of Mildred Warner would like to thank everyone who called, sent a card, prepared food, offered words of condolence, gave flowers or memorial donations. A special thank you to Rev. John Bartlett for the funeral service and to John and Natalie Knodel for making the arrangements.

Thank you for the many kind expressions of sympathy in the loss of Maurice's mother. Your thoughtfulness will not be forgotten. Maurice and Monica Stram

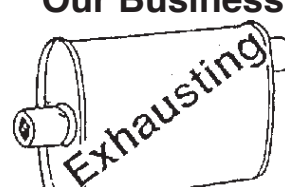

I would like to thank the city crew for clearing off west North Street. Thanks so much Vickie Clapper

The Cheyenne County Hospital would like to thank the family of Mildred Warner for their generous memorial contribution to the hospital. Your continued support is greatly appreciated.

Your love lifted me on my 95th birthday. Thanks! Edwin Meyer

Thank you to the Chamber for the coffee candle door prize I won at the annual meeting. Karen Krien

Gas Thieves Don't Drive in Kansas!

Driveoffs drive up the price of gasoline for all of us. That's why members of the Petroleum Marketers and Convenience Store Association of Kansas support a Kansas law that punishes gas thieves. Under the law, drivers who don't pay for their gasoline may lose their driver's licenses. Help keep gas prices down by paying for your gasoline and reporting drivers who don't to the Kansas Highway Patrol.
