

UNDER THE SEA 2007 featured this 24-foot long model ship built by the Cheylin Junior Class for their prom.

Times Staff photo by Melinda Basnett

Times Staff Photos by Melinda Basnett

SOPHOMORE servers, left, Jacob White, Rex Weishapl and Justin Miller take their serving costumes in good humor. Tony Pham and Joe Dunham, above, clown around as they wait for the promenade to begin. Saturday's prom was a complete success as students enjoyed a dinner of chicken alfredo, salad, homemade bread, shrimp cocktail and cake, followed by dancing. An after-prom party was held at the bowling alley in St. Francis with pizza, bowling, games and prizes.

Organization looking for teams to collect pledges

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Cheyenne County is holding the 2007 Bowl For Kids Sake event starting at 11 a.m. on Saturday, May 5, at the Cheyenne Bowl, U.S. 36. If there are more teams, a second session will be held.

Each team should have five bowlers and will have their own pledge sheet to collect pledges. All bowlers raising $100 or more will receive a T-shirt. There will also be door prizes given away throughout the day.

"There are several different time slots available for teams to sign up," said Meghann Antholz, county case manager. "We have different time slots available for teams to sign up."

Those interested in participating can call her at 785-332-8989 or the Goodland office at 785-890-3665.

The bowling is free and the food and beverages will also be provided to bowlers. Everyone participating will have the opportunity to have a great time while raising money for The Big Brothers Big Sisters program.

The money will stay in the county and will help with costs of administration, case management, volunteer and family intake as well as general office needs. The funding has increased each year and the program leaders are hoping to make a positive impact on the youth in the community.

Celebration of spring planned for town of McDonald

By Melinda Basnett

Spring is here! The McDonald Springfest will be held Saturday, May 5, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., in downtown McDonald.

There will be fun for all ages. Arts and crafts booths, baked goods and garage sale booths, as well as in-home businesses, will be set up in the American Legion Hall.

Horseshoe pitching contests will be at 1 p.m. across the street from the gazebo. Bring your own horseshoes.

At 2 p.m. you are invited to a Mother-Daughter Tea at the McDonald Senior Center. Tea samplings and sweets with friends and fellowship follow registration. Please phone RSVP's to Johnene Cheney by April 30 at 785-538-2526.

The first 25 children, ages toddler to 12 years old, will be able to join the coin toss. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

In the evening Karaoke will begin at The Frosty Mug at 8 p.m.

Come spend the day in McDonald and enjoy a taste of small town fun. McDonald is a small town with a lot to offer. For questions call Iris McIntosh 785-538-2475.

Cougar Chronicles

Menu

April 30-May 3

Monday, April 30
Breakfast; muffin, sausage link, cereal, toast, juice, milk
Lunch; Tacos, vegetables, salad bar, fruit, dessert, milk

Tuesday, May 1
Breakfast; ham casserole, cereal, toast, juice, milk
Lunch; chicken in gravy, mashed potatoes, rolls, salad bar, fruit, milk

Wednesday, May 2
Breakfast; pop-tarts, cereal, toast, juice, milk

Lunch; Sixth Grade Menu; meatballs, buttered noodles, breadsticks, salad bar, strawberries, bananas, and kiwi, creamed corn, brownie with ice cream, milk
Thursday, May 3
Breakfast; breakfast burritos, cereal, toast, juice, milk

Lunch; sloppy joes, potato wedges, salad bar, fruit, milk

•April 27 There is a high school golf meet @ Oakley

•April 29-May 1 is State FFA contest

•May 1 High school track @ Logan

The sixth grade will hold a bake and rummage sale in the old first grade classroom for kindergarten through fifth grade. The proceeds will go to the Bird City tornado victims and Samanth Robertson who lost her home to a fire. All other teachers, staff, and students in grades seven through 12 are welcome to purchase items after noon.

•May 2 Cougar Math Meet 4:30 pm.

•May 3 Golf meet @ Dighton

•May 4 High school track @ Benkelman