Election to be held on Dec. 10

Plans are being made to select a representative for the Local Administrative Area of the Farm Service Agency.

The agency's County Committee election will be held this year on Dec. 10. This Local Administrative Area covers the southwest part of Cheyenne County. Eligible voters have the right to nominate candidate(s) of their choice. Blank FSA-669's may be obtained at the county office. Each FSA-669A submitted must be:

- Limited to one nominee.
- Signed by the nominee, indicating willingness to serve, if elected.
- Postmarked or delivered to the Cheyenne County Office no later than Aug. 1.

Persons nominated should be currently engaged in the operation of a farm or ranch and be well qualified for committee work. A farmer is eligible to be a committee member if the farmer lives in the Local Administration Area and is an eligible voter. County Committee members may not hold positions in certain farm and commodity organizations, if these positions pose a conflict of interest with agency duties. These positions include functional offices such as president, vice president, secretary and positions on boards or Executive Committees. Additional information of eligibility to hold office may be obtain at the county office.

The duties of County Agency

Committee members include:

- Informing farmers of the purpose and provisions of the Farm Service Agency programs,
- Keeping the State Committee informed of Local Administrative Area conditions recommending needed changes in farm programs

- Recommending needed changes in farm programs,
- Participating in county meetings as necessary,
- Performing other duties as assigned by the State Committee.

Joe E. Horner

Dec. 18, 1919 - May 17, 2007

Joe E. Horner, 87, died Thursday, May 17, 2007, in the Rehabilitation and Care Center of Oswego, Kan.

He was born Dec. 18, 1919, in Geary County to Leonard H. and Margaret (Erickson) Horner. He grew up on the family farm, graduating from Dickinson County High School at Chapman. He was part of the World War II effort by building the Army ammunition plants at Parsons and Hutchinson, finally with the Army Corp of Engineers in Fort Riley.

He was city manager of Belleville, was rural electric manager of northwest Kansas in Bird City, and public power district manager at McCook, Neb. Following a dream he bought a fishing resort on Lake Conway, Ark., in 1969, which he operated for two years and finished his working career with several years employment with Montgomery County in Independence before retiring in Oswego.

Mr. Horner was a charter member of Our Savior's Lutheran Church, McCook.

He and his wife, Marie Robinson celebrated 64 years of marriage on July 11, 2006. She survives of the home.

Other survivors include their children, Judy Roessler of Oswego, Sharon Frazier and her fiancée, Steve Clark of McCook, Karen Kroeger and her husband, Lyle of Lincoln, Neb., Kim Horner and his wife, Mary of Springfield, Mo., Susan Wilkinson and Isaac Lopez of Las Cruces, N.M., and Peggy Young and her husband, Bob of Bartlesville, Okla.; 11 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; and a sister, Maxine Marston of Junction City.

His parents, two sisters and a brother preceded him in death.

Cremation has taken place and a celebration of his life was held at the Oswego Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, May 22, with the Rev. Wayne Mason officiating.
