Death notice

Jack Poore died recently. Jack was such a part of the community for so many years, being both a farmer and a business man. His little empty office building at the north of Main Street, will be a constant reminder that the community has lost a good friend and member of the McDonald community.

Reminder

The McDonald Area Development Committee will be sponsoring their annual ice cream social at the McDonald Park at 8 p.m. on Sunday evening. Be sure to bring either chairs or blankets for seating, as seating at the gazebo is very limited. You are welcome to enjoy an evening of good food and a time to visit with friends and neighbors.

97th birthday

On July 4, the Banister family celebrated Amelia's 97th birthday with a breakfast at the Frosty Mug. Those enjoying the morning were Amelia Banister, Karlyne Atchison, Dillon Atchison from Arlington, Texas, Kent and Joan Banister, Jim Banister, George, Kathy and Amanda Banister. In the evening Tammi Carmichael hosted a birthday party for Amelia and for Wade Carmichael. About 30 family members and friends enjoyed cake and ice cream.

Thursday evening visitors of Amelia Banister were Agnes Reeh, Arlene Glad and MaryEllen Horton. The ladies treated Amelia to supper at the Frosty Mug. This made for a whole week of celebrating for Amelia.

Dick Beamgard of Detroit, Mich., is visiting her mother, June Beamgard and other relatives. On Sunday he took June Beamgard, Joan Tongish and Mike and Diana Tongish to the Frosty Mug for dinner.

Ray and Marlene Johnson and Danae Magnani were Saturday visitors of Ted and Dixie Bethell in McCook.

Ray and Marlene Johnson were Sunday evening visitors of Levi, Bridgette and Gabrielle Pochop.

Lana (Tracy) Leirman has been staying with Jim and Ruby Tracy to help out with meals and medical attention since Jim came home last week. Visitors of the Tracys this past week to celebrate Jim's birthday were Travis and Angela Hanes and family, Eleanor Swihart, Rex and Colleen Smith and Kenny Wilkinson.
