Thank You

We would like to thank Shirley Zwegardt and the Alumni Association for your generous gift of cash to help us purchase new chairs and moving racks at the high school. Thanks for all you do and represent. USD 297 Administrstion and staff

Thank you to Pearline Rath and Lydia for the meals and to all for signing the card. Also thank you to all who sent cards by mail, extended well wishes, visits, phone calls and gifts to help me celebrate my 95th birthday. God's blessings to all. Gus Zwegardt

Thank you to everyone who has remembered me since I was diagnosed with cancer and now that I am taking chemo. The cards have brought tears as I read them and realized there were people from my hometown thinking about me.

The flowers from the class of 1966 came the day before my second chemo treatment and helped me through a difficult time. I still have three more months of chemo. I am determined to beat the disease again and your thoughts, prayers cards and flowers have helped have helped immensely. Love, Sue Ella Touslee

To Dr. Miller and hospital staff, thanks for the good care. Thanks for the cards and phone calls and to my dear neighbor Darci K. for the special gift. Also my family that called and came to see me every day. I love you all. Marlene Young

We would like to thank the friends, neighbors and family for the phone calls, visits, cards and food that was brought to the house following Jerdene's accident and death. Thank you to the Baptist and Christian Church ladies for the dinner that was served to the family; a special thanks to Pastor Jeff and Becca for their visit, their concerns and prayers. Sincerely, Jim and Mildred Barnhart

Thank you to the many friends that remembered us and honored our mother with their sympathy in the gifts of food, memorials, flowers, kind words and prayers. We are privileged to live in such caring communities. We sincerely appreciated the service by Dan Carson and Scott Baker, the comforting guidance from Knodel Chapel and also the fine meal from the Wesleyan and First Christian Church ladies. Thank you. The Howland families.
