Student News

Kansas State University

Alecia Zimbelman
Alecia Zimbelman of St. Francis, was among the 22 Kansas State University freshmen, who have been formally accepted in the 2007 class of Early Admission Scholars program for the College of Veterinary Medicine.

This program recruits the best and brightest undergraduate students who want to study veterinary medicine. After acceptance into the program and completion of 64 hours of preprofessional requirements, the scholars are guaranteed admission into the College of Veterinary Medicine. "Qualifying for this program is a big deal because there are hundreds of applicants for only a limited number of positions," Ronnie Elmore, associate dean for admissions and diversity programs at the College of Veterinary Medicine, said.

Successful candidates in the Early Admission Scholars program must maintain a 3.4 grade point average during completion of the preprofessional requirements. Each student also must take the Graduate Record Examination, by their third year of undergraduate studies, the scholars may petition for enrollment in the first year of the doctor of veterinary medicine degree program.

Foreign investors need to report their holdings

Angie Berens, County Executive director of the Cheyenne County Farm Service Agency, is reminding foreign investors who buy, sell or hold a direct or indirect interest in agricultural lands in the United States that they are required under the Agricultural Foreign Investment Disclosure Act to report their holdings and transactions to the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture.

The Secretary of Agriculture has delegated the responsibility for collecting this information to the Farm Service Agency.

According to Mrs. Berens, foreign investors buying or selling land must report such transaction within 90 days of the date of the sale.

Failure to file an accurate or timely report can result in a penalty with fines up to 25 percent of the fair market value of the agricultural land.

Mrs. Berens said the act requires reports to be filed by:

- individuals who are not U.S. citizens or citizens of the Northern Mariana Islands or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands;
- individuals who are not lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence or who are not paroled into the United States under the Immigration and Nationality Act;

- any organization created under the laws of a foreign government or which has located its principal place of business outside the United States;

- any U.S. organization in which a significant interest or substantial control is directly or indirectly held by foreign individuals, organizations, or government; and
- any foreign governments.

Farm Service Agency form FSA-153 is used to report land holdings and transactions. The completed form must be returned to the Farm Service Agency county office where the land is located.

Sign-up for food deadline is Monday

The deadline for signing up for the December Prairie Land Food Pak is Monday, Dec. 3.

The Prairie "Sneak Peek Pak" includes old Carolina bacon, popcorn shrimp, boneless/skinless chicken breast fillets, Lil cocktail smokies, two more meat items will be added, along with six to eight different fresh fruit and vegetable items. Besides the price, two hours of volunteer service is needed. Also available for those getting the Sneak Peek Pak are meat-only packages and fruit-and-veggie packages Volunteer work is anything that you do out of the kindness of your heart, that you do not get paid for.

It can be as simple as being on a prayer chain, being a room mother at school, sharing your bountiful garden, taking time to sit and have a cup of coffee with an elderly neighbor or spending time with someone going through a rough time. Anytime that you make someone's day a little brighter will qualify you for the Prairie Land Food Program.

December specials include Surf 'N' Turf, Pizza Party and Spiral Sliced Ham.

Food pickup day is Saturday, Dec. 15 at the First Baptist Church.

For contact information you may call Lee Nichols at 332-3581 or 332-6336.

FOLLOWING THE Nov. 5 Kanred meeting, lunch was served. Those pictured are Teeva Henry, Rose Marie Hoevel, Jan Scharnikow. Also present, Carol Williams, Carol Marsh, Dorthy Mast, Wanda Dowdy and Jerry Cress.

Members enjoys newly decorated meeting room

Kanred Unit

Kanred Unit met in October at the newly decorated meeting room at Lebow Manor. The two large round tables were covered with wine-colored table clothes, with a crystal centerpiece. There are new wine colored drapes and attractive wall decorations. There are also several new padded chairs and a new microwave.

After the meeting, members worked on a poster to display up-town from the "Liquid Assets" lesson that told everyone they should drink eight glasses of water a day for good health.

County Health Talk

By Susan Roelfs

Winter is upon us and with the cold weather comes emergencies. From ice storms and downed power lines, to slippery roads and closed stores, many will struggle with the difficulties that accompany snow and ice.

While the weather may be unpredictable, through simple preparation, people can avoid some of the difficulties that may arise. They do not need to invest a lot of time or money to have the very basic items that will help them through the most common emergencies!

Getting trapped in a car is horrible at any time of the year, but it's especially bad when it happens in the winter. Being trapped in the car in the winter can be even worse if you do not have the proper items on hand. There have been people trapped in their car for days, but they were able to survive the cold winter days and nights because they had the proper products in their cars. These items are meant to keep people not only warm and safe, but are also good for normal winter days.

- Emergency items are:
- Jump starter.
  - Flash light and batteries.
  - Blankets.
  - First aid kit.
  - Large plastic garbage bags.
  - Water.
  - Simple foods.
  - Cell Phone with charger.
  - Sanitation supplies.

Everyone hopes to avoid winter emergencies with its difficulties however, it is better to be prepared and these simple steps will help to keep safe and could, in the most extreme cases, be a lifesaver.

Club Clip

Go-Getters 4-H Club

The Go-Getters 4-H Club held their November meeting on Nov. 11 at the Lutheran Church.

President Aryn Sturgeon called the meeting to order.

Secretary Isaac Sturgeon took roll call. Ten members answered to "What is Your Favorite Animal." There were also six parents present. The club has two new members: Amanda and Marshall Zwegardt.

Officer elections were held. The results are as follows: Caleb Keltz, president; Joshua Keltz, vice president; Aryn Sturgeon, secretary, reporter, historian; Amanda Zwegardt, treasurer; Rachel and Elizabeth Keltz, song leaders, recreation leader, Trevor Sturgeon.

In old business, the club discussed the display for the 4-H family fun night. In new business the application deadline for Citizenship Washington Focus is Dec. 1.

The club voted to go caroling at the Good Samaritan village in December and then have a gift exchange and pizza party.

In announcements, the 4-H Family Fun Night and Favorite Food Show is Nov. 30, County 4-H Day is March 14, and Regional 4-H day is April 4.

The meeting was adjourned.
