of home health, the meals on wheels program and the Good Samaritan Village all in St. Francis, as well as the Andbe Home in Norton. We are so appreciative of the wonderful service to Mom that all of you have provided at one time or another for her. Special thanks to Pastor Hart, the Peace Lutheran Church choir and the church ladies for the wonderful service and meal. We do appreciate everything! The family of Phyllis Bandel

To all our great neighbors and friends in and around Bird City. Thank you for the lovely farewell dinner and gifts. We really enjoyed and appreciated it. You've made us feel welcome and were always there to give a helping hand when it was needed. We will really miss you all and Bird City. Hopefully will get to come back to visit you. Thanks again, Carl and Sandee Thanks so very much for the many kindnesses that were shown to Irene Kehlbeck during her life, and especially during these past few years at Good Samaritan Village. The staff there is kind and patient, and were such a blessing to her.

Also thanks for the caring shown to her family. The meal provided by the St. John Lutheran ladies was absolutely delicious, and was greatly appreciated.

Irene had a wonderful life, but an even better one now. For this we are thankful most of all.

Arlie and Nadine (Kehlbeck)
