

Memorial Roster

The Memorial Roster Committee of the Kansas Day Association assembled the following record of Cheyenne County residents or past residents who died during 2007.

Even their best efforts are not enough to be able to say, with certainty, that the record is complete, for the deaths of many of the county's past residents are never known by the Kansas Day Memorial Roster Committee. Public input is encouraged in helping compile the roster.

Should anyone know of the death of a former Cheyenne County resident who is not included on this year's record, please contact the Kansas Day Association. Vada Leach is the Kansas Day Memorial Roster Chairman or contact Marsha Magley, secretary.

In the coming months, should anyone be aware of any names which should be included, please let the committee know so the information can be included in the Memorial Day Roster 2008.

Birthday party

LaVina Waters celebrates her Feb. 4 birthday in grand style with a big family party. As her husband, Fred said, "They had company from the hills and valleys." Her daughter and husband, Kathy and Rick Frisbie entertained the 40 guests on Saturday with a noon luncheon. Her son, Kurt Andrews, of Oregon, was still visiting on Monday.

There were family members from North Carolina, Oregon, Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas and Missouri. This included sisters and families, a brother, Bob Binning of Atwood and families, a granddaughter and family of Lee Summit, Mo. and a grandson from Kansas City. Bud and Helen Frisbie were also guests at the dinner.

What a great weekend for LaVina and her family!

Leonard Vyzourek, who recently had hip surgery is recuperating at the home of his son and wife, Treg and Cammi Vyzourek in North Platte, Neb.

Kenny and Phyllis Wilkinson were Tuesday visitors of Jim and Ruby Tracy.

Natural resources sponsors meeting

On Feb. 21 through the 23, six professional societies that promote the wise use and management of Kansas' natural resources are sponsoring the first Kansas Natural Resources Conference at the Airport Hilton in Wichita. The theme of the conference is "Where do trees belong in Kansas? The Role of Trees in Kansas Landscape."

Joan Gienger, District Conservationist, Natural Resources Conservation Service, St. Francis, is among those planning to attend.

"There's still time to register," said Dan Meyerhoff, steering committee chairperson. "Registration information is available on the Internet at the Web site <http://www.k-state.edu/fisheries/KNRC/RegistrationKNRC.pdf>. Those interested in the conference theme should find that the conference speakers, concurrent sessions, and trade show will provide a variety of information.

The Plenary session speakers will address the conference theme with Dr. Elliott West speaking on the historical extent and composition of riparian forests, particularly in central and western Kansas, h said Mr. Meyerhoff. Dr. West is a distinguished professor of history at the University of Arkansas.

Other plenary session speakers are Dr. Jim Sherow, professor of environmental history at Kansas State University and Larry Rutter, retired from the Kansas State Historical Society. Speaker biographies are on the Web site.

There will be over 50 papers presented during the concurrent sessions throughout the conference, h said Mr. Meyerhoff.

We are excited about the number of papers and posters to be presented at this conference, and the wide range of topics should appeal to a broad spectrum of people interested in environmental and natural resources topics.

Presentations are divided among 11 subjects according to Craig Paukert, Kansas Cooperative Fish and Wildlife Research Unit at K-State University, who is handling presentation scheduling. A few titles include: Cedar Tree Removal and Its Effect on Hydrology and Sensitive Fish and Wildlife Species; Landscaping Agriculture with Conservation Buffers for Multipurpose Benefits; The Kansas Forest Stewardship Program Spatial Analysis Project: Methods and Outcomes; Management of Canada Thistle and Musk Thistle with Milestone® (Aminopyralid) Herbicide; Tree Invasion of Our Prairies: A Product of Our Affinities, Fears, and Ignorance. Check out the rest on the Web site.

Conference brochure, registration form, concurrent session topics, tradeshow exhibiting information, committee chairs, and hotel information is available on the Internet at the Web site www.k-state.edu/fisheries/KNRC.
