

Demolition derby offers two classes

By Karen Krien
karen.k@nwkansas.com
The demolition derby at the Cheyenne County Fair is one of the biggest crowd drawing events, not only at the fair, but in the surrounding area. This year's fair will have two classes: welded and hobo.

Dick Bursch, president of the fair board, said he had heard a number of people commenting favorably on the new plans.

Clay Zimbelman said the demolition derby plans were coming along. Several members said they had heard there were drivers who were planning on bringing more than one car so they could drive in both the welded and the hobo classes.
At a previous meeting, the board had agreed to sell advanced general admission passes for grandstand seating. Those buying these passes will be given a wrist band.
"This will take care of the long lines that night," said Lacy Reed, fair board member.
There will not be any advanced ticket sales for the pit area.

The board talked about the pit area and was concerned about the younger kids running around unsupervised during the derby. The board will continue to enforce that the parents or a supervising adult be with kids 16 and under while they are in that area.
The pit area is a dangerous place for young people to be unsupervised. It was also noted that the board can't be too careful when it comes to dealing with liability issues.
For more information on the demolition derby, talk to Mr. Zimbelman or any fair board member.

Church hosts the annual finale for Awana club

The Federated Church of McDonald hosted the annual "Grande Finale" for its Awana Club, Sunday evening, May 4.
Awana Club is an international organization for boys and girls from 3 years of age through high school. As the Awana flag salute states, "its goal is to reach boys and girls with the gospel of Christ and train them to serve him."
Each year beginning the first Wednesday in October and ending the last Wednesday in April the Awana club meets at 4:30 and ends at 6 every Wednesday at the Federated Church in McDonald. At the club meetings the kids have a snack, play games, memorize Bible verses, and listen to a devotional.
For two years the club has been doing a walk through the Bible during their devotional time. Last year they covered the books of the Old Testament and this year the New Testament. Each week Pastor Greg Moyer covered the information in one of the New Testament books with a power point presentation. Because of the reviewing that he did from week to week the clubbers were able to remember a lot of details not only about the Bible, but how they could apply what they had learned to their life.

Leaders for the Sparks club are Betty Knapp, Betty Lewis, Joan Tongish, Lavina Waters, and Dawn Petty.
Jeri Antholz, Margie Hubbard and Stacy Brown head the Truth and Training Club or better known as the T&T Club for the girls in third through fifth grades. Pastor Moyer, Jerry Knapp, Gilbert Antholz, and George Louderbaugh were the leaders for the boys in T&T. First Book Awards were given to Cheyenne Hewitt, Danae Magnani, Winter Star Polivka, Elizabeth Keltz, Haleigh Rucker, and C.J. Antholz. Reece Leonard received his second book award. A Certificate of Participation was given to Jacob Brubaker, but Danielle and Alexis Frink were not present to receive theirs.
This year the Citation Award was given for the first time ever in the Federated Church Awana Club. The Citation Plaque is given to only high school seniors or adults who have completed all third through 12th grade handbooks along with associated materials that they are required to complete. The Club Commander, Pastor Moyer presented Alex Thomas this prestigious award. Alex's leaders were his parents, Pam and Dan Thomas.

The theme for the events on Sunday evening was a "Hobo Party." Everyone was encouraged to dress up like a hobo. Many of the kids and adults went all out in their attire.
The evening started with the awards ceremony held in the church sanctuary. Following the saying of the flag salutes and singing a few songs led by the Awana director, Dixie Louderbaugh, the kids received their awards for memorizing Bible verses and completing their handbooks.
In the cubbies division John Serrano received a certificate of participation from his leader Marlene Johnson. The Sparks club (kindergarten through second grade) awarded the first book ribbons to Dominique Johnson and Kaylynn Hendricks. Second book ribbons were given to Leigh Brown, Jacob Serrano, and Christina Frink. Plaques were given to Rachel Keltz and Alex Hazuka for finishing their third book in Sparks.

Bill and Lois Schaff and Ruth Winkelman hosted a birthday party for Westleigh Miesner on Wednesday evening. Guests were Dean and April Miesner, Lamar and Jamie Adams, Rose and Jay Gordon, Diane and Kelly Simmonds.
Weekend guests from Colorado were Patricia Mauro and Clement Soares. Patricia is the granddaughter of Ruth Winkelman. They brought snow with them from Colorado and were sent home with sunshine.
Jay and Rose Gordon went to Montana to visit Jay's mom and sister on April 24 and 25. Jay ended the trip with a trip to St. Francis hospital for three days, but is now home.

Jon and Rachel Mallett, Taylor and Addison from Manhattan were weekend guests of R.J. and Susie Sabatka. Jon helped Kasey Sabatka and Craig Sabatka work cattle and get them out of pasture. On Saturday, all attended the wedding of Collette Cahoj. Bruce Rosee.
Last Friday and Saturday guests of Gail and Kay Miller were Mr. and Mrs. Rick Erickdon from Fort Morgan, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Woznick of Fort Collins, Colo. Frances Erickdon was also a guest during this time.
Stan and Dana Palmer and children arrived Friday in a blizzard to spend five days with Dana's grandparents, Kenny and Phyllis Wilkinson. Other Sunday supper guests were Rod and Lisa Johnson. Greg and Cheryl Wilkinson were Monday breakfast guests.
