I want to thank everyone for all of the support and encouragement that I received throughout the week of Young Miss. All the flowers, balloons, cards and gifts were greatly appreciated. I especially want to thank my backstage mom, Shawn, for all your help! Couldn't have done it without you! Thank you Vicki and Aimee and the Young Miss Committee for all you do to keep Young Miss going! If it weren't for Young Miss, I wouldn't have found any of my inner strengths. Again, thank you for an amazing experience! Nikki Johnson.

~ Law is a kind of love. ~
What higher expression of man's feeling for man exists than that which seeks justice, compassion and equality for all men?
Law shelters and protects. It must always listen. Hold true. Remain calm and compassionate.
Law is sometimes restrictive because everyone's ideals are hard to maintain. Limiting to an extent because every freedom must have some limit.
Law represents the best thinking, the highest ideals of man for mankind. If it becomes outdated, each of us is to blame.
If it fails us, we've failed it.
Law insists upon order and peace. But it beckons change and improvement. Without law there would be no constructive change. Or freedom. Or justice. Or equality.
Without these there would be no love.
We're all brothers under the law. Woven together by common conscience and need.
Law is a kind of love.
