Many attend concert

Sunday afternoon's benefit concert for Ye Olde Country Church was a great success, said Janet Carman, member of the Cheyenne County Historical So-

The three Ransom children, making up the Ransom Notes, Fort Collins, Colo., had come especially for the concert, donating their talents for the afternoon performance. Amanda Ransom, 21; Michael, 16; and Amelia, 14, sang and played classical, religious, and bluegrass music on various instruments. Amelia was the most versatile as she played the violin, guitar, mandolin and viola as well as sang.

"Musical numbers performed by the Ransom Notes and local talent energized the enthusiastic audience," Mrs. Carman said.

The support of the community, she said, has been great. The money donated Sunday was matched by the Thrivent organization and will be used to refurbish the old church.
