In Memory

In Memory of Wade Donald Hardwick

In memory of a wonderful Boss but more over a dear friend. Wade we'll always treasure our happy memories of you! Those days in the little flowershop, I went to Eleanor and you and was embraced by the warmth of the two of you immediately. A wealth of memories of our days in that buzzing little hive. What caring thoughtful people you both were. Such good council came from our day-to-day exchanges. With inclement weather you and your trusty Pinto would deliver me safely to our door. Your great values and good sense of fun was such help in life's lessons. Heartfelt thanks dear friend for all you gave and all you were. A tremendous example to both Rick and I. Life ends but never the love it's given. Lynda and Richard

Thank You

A sincere thank you to the dear ones who extended their sympathy after the accident and death of my dear cousin Laurene Crabtree Rohn. Aletha Murphy

Thank you to all of the folks who traveled many miles to attend the service for Wade Hardwick and to those who gave spiritual comfort to us with words, cards and flowers - not forgetting the wonderful food sent in. Also thank you for the contributions to the Dundy County Museum in Wade's name - he really loved those malts! The family of Wade Hardwick

Thanks to all my family and friends for my wonderful surprise 50th! The meal was fantastic, all the lovely gifts, cards, and the pictures and video down memory lane is a treasure! How could you plan a party without me? Many thanks! Love Mary

We would like to express our appreciation to Pastor Morita, Fred and Shelly Klie, John and Anita Amack, Alvin Amack and all of the many families and friends for their support in the loss of our loved one. The family of Manson Lynn Jones
