

Scholarship goes to student

By Casey McCormick
scmccormick@nwkansas.com

A new scholarship was introduced for two Cheyenne County seniors this year. The Built Ford Tough Trucks FFA scholarship was awarded to a student from both county schools.

Yost Ford Mercury teamed with Ford Motor Company to award $1,000 to Courtney Douthit, St. Francis Community High School, and Sydney Busse, Cheylin High School. Each graduating senior is a member of their school's FFA organization.

Bob Yost, owner of the dealership, was happy to help the graduates.

"We're excited to be able to give the scholarships to two deserving kids," Mr. Yost said. "Hopefully, we will have more FFA members applying for the program next year."

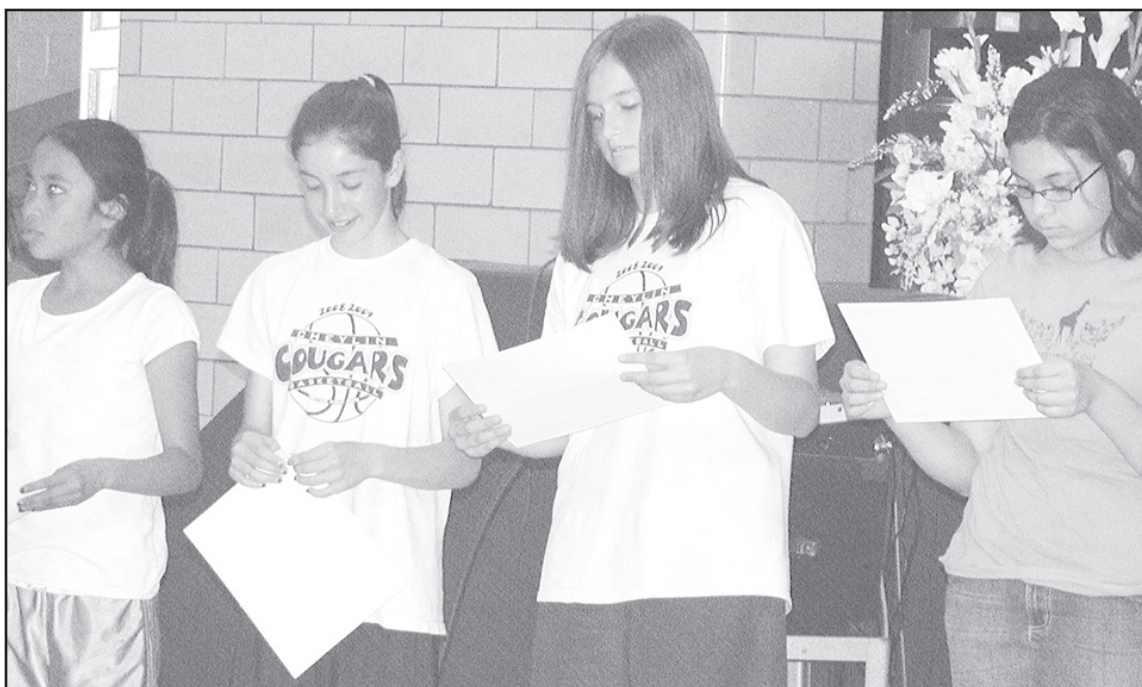

Although this is the first time this scholarship has been awarded here, Ford has supported the National FFA Foundation since the first F-Series truck was introduced in 1948. In the same spirit the Built Ford Tough collegiate program began in 1997. Over 5,500 students have used the scholarship to further their education.

This year's Cheyenne County scholars join 452 seniors across America who plan to attend college in the fall of 2009.

Couple join in marriage

Vanessa Lynn and Casey Lee Bolyard were married in the First Baptist Church, Wilson, Texas, on April 4, 2009. Officiating the wedding was Rick West of Lubbock, Texas.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents, Tom and Judy Walker, and son, Ayden Mitchell, 6 years old.

She wore a floor-length ivory-satin gown with halter neckline featuring a bodice encrusted with pearls and rhinestones. The back was gathered into a small bustle. The empire waist flowed into a semi-cathedral train and completed the look with a single layer ivory-tulle veil.

Her matron of honor was her sister, LaFaun Gilman of Abilene, Texas. The flower girls were a niece, Sawyer Gilman and a friend, Kiki Vigil. The ring bearer was the groom's nephew, Nathaniel Valdez of Wilson.

A reception followed the ceremony. The musicians at the reception were Les and Nancy Walker.

The bride is from Lubbock. She graduated from Grady High School, received a bachelor's degree from Texas Tech University Health Science Center, Lubbock, in nursing, and received a master's degree in nursing from West Texas A and M. She is currently employed as a nurse practitioner at the Shallowater Clinic in Shallowater, Texas.

The groom is from Wilson. He graduated from Wilson High School, attended South Plains College and is employed at Family Power Sports in Lubbock. His parents are Doug and Tami Bolyard, Wilson, and his grandfather, Vertie Bolyard is from Bird City.

Awards given to students

On Monday, the Cheylin junior high class held its awards assembly and eighth grade graduation ceremony.

During the awards assembly, students were recognized by coaches and staff for their accomplishments for the school year, both in sports and academically.

Later in the evening, the eighth grade class was promoted to be the graduating class of 2013. The eighth graduates were, Stephanie Claire Busse, Heath William Churchwell, Austin Paul Cobb, Caleb James Frink, Joshua Wayne Keltz, Adam Henry Orten, Ruben Eduardo Razo, Kenan Paul Reeh, Cassie O'Neal Rucker, Nakita Marie Schneider, Grant Eugene Shrader, Jessica Lynn Smith, Sean Michael Smith.

As tradition goes, the Presentation of Key was passed from last year's recipient, Adam Orten, to the next class of eighth graders. The 2009-2010 eighth grade recipient was Ty Carmichael.

Superintendent William Porter presented the Kansas State High School Activities Association Citizenship Award to Jessica Smith and Joshua Keltz.

Following the diploma presentation, a reception and refreshments were provided and served by the seventh and eighth grades parents.

MOVING ON TO high school. Cassie Rucker and Adam Orten participate in the ceremony that marks the end of their time in junior high.
