You did it! I am speechless at the outpouring of support and congratulations offered by my church and by the community as I celebrated my birthday and graduation. The many cards I received, the thoughtful gifts, the phone calls, the smiles, and the pats on the back have all added to the joy of the moment! And I never realized how many cards include the words "woo hoo!" A special thanks to all those who helped with the extravaganza at the church. It was a grand night.
