

Thresher show ends for another year

The Tri-State Antique Engine and Thresher Show, held in Bird City, is fun for everyone. These unidentified boys, above, were driving one of the antique steam engines. Top right, washing clothes the old fashioned way were (l to r) Mason Schmid, Katie Schmid, Connor McBride and Sharlie Smith. Clockwise: Gerald Wright always demonstrates the pyramid stunt with the big equipment; Darlene Burr was keeping watch and doing handwork in the quilt room in the Eggers' Building. Racing the steam engines is one of the great sports of the day; Norm Dorch was busy taking kids and adults for rides on the old Shriners' fire engine.

Staff photos by Linda Schneider

