

Cheylin sixth graders tell of a favorite Christmas

Kale Shields' sixth graders answer the questions: What is the most favorite thing you do during the Christmas Holiday? And, if you could do anything you want, what would you do?

Diana Garcia said that she likes to be with her family because they get to play games and watch a movie. And if she could do anything, she would go to Texas to watch a Texas Long Horn game.

Devon Janicke wrote, I always watch Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer. And if he could do anything, he says he would burn down the Dallas, Texas football stadium.

I would spend time with my family wrote Pedro Gutierrez. And if he could do anything he wanted, he would hug his family, play games, have a good time, and eat delicious family-made food.

Getting together with the family and opening presents is Reece Leonard's favorite thing to do during the holidays. And if he could do anything he wanted, he would earn money then donate the money to charity, then go eat and have fun with his family.

Kelsey Miller likes spending time with family and opening gifts. And if she could do anything she wanted, she would eat all the cookies her family made.

I would go to my Grandma Connie and Grandpa

Brian's house on Christmas Eve wrote Danea Magnani. We eat supper there and open presents. Then we open presents at home on Christmas Day. It is a lot of fun! And if she could do anything, she would choose to go to Denver, Colo., after presents were opened at home and stay in Denver for four days and go ice skating and shopping and much more!!

ElsaCraig Burr writes that her favorite thing during the Christmas holiday is no school for a while and getting presents. And if she could do anything, she would have as many presents as she wanted.

Ivan Kemp says that he loves to have fun with his family.

Elizabeth Keltz's favorite thing to do at Christmas is going to her grandma's and grandpa's house on Christmas Eve and visiting the family. And if she could do anything she wanted, she would go to a K-State basketball game with her family.

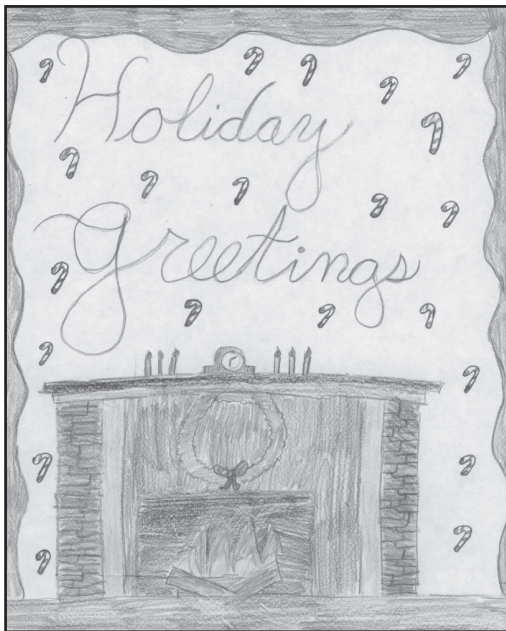

Vaneza Castillo's favorite thing to do during the Christmas holiday is watch Christmas movies. And if she could do anything she wanted, she would get a lot of toys and make a city of it and would be the queen.

Derek Vandike would spend time with his family, open his presents, and start playing with them.
