Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1528 April

The Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1528 met on April 19 at the Cheyenne Manor. There were seven present: Connie Rooney, Marlys Poulignot, Hattie Terry, Ruth Moore, Carol Connett, Annette Erskin and Wanda Dowdy. President Rooney called the meeting to order and had the opening ceremonies. Marlys led in the opening prayer.

Reports were given. The treasurer's report showed the balance on hand at $1,402 as of March 31. Connie read from the communications from the April mailer. She read a lot about the upcoming convention and elections that will take place. There was quite a bit of information about Americanism and Patriotism.

There are many days of observance in the months ahead such as: May 1: Loyalty Day, when members should reaffirm loyalty to the United States; May 15: Armed Forces Day, the third Saturday in May, is simply a day to salute all of the men and women in all branches of service who protect our country; May 31: Memorial Day, a day to remember all U.S. Military Personnel who died in wars or other military actions. Flying the U.S. Flag is one of the simplest ways to show support for the country and its founding principles and to pay respect to those lives lost. The flag is to be flown at half-staff until noon and then raised to full staff; June 14: Flag Day, a day for all Americans to celebrate and show respect for the American flag, which is a representative of the country's independence and unity as a nation; July 4: Independence Day.

Ruth reported for the Poppy Committee. Since the ladies who usually sell poppies for the American Legion are unable to do so this year, it was reported that the members will have to wrap the poppies and then sell them this year. She made a motion that members wrap these poppies at the next meeting and then sell them on Saturday, May 22, beginning at 9 a.m. Dot and Ruth will plan on selling poppies at the post office and Carol and Hattie will sell at the grocery store.

The Memorial Day program was discussed. Marlys made a motion to have Ron Hill organize the program again this year. Ruth seconded the motion and the motion carried. Carol brought a poem from a really old newspaper that had been read at a Memorial Day service years ago. It was called "I'm Still The Same Old Flag."

Connie read an e-mail that she had received from the VFW Auxiliary. President Obama had proclaimed April 19 as a National Day of Service and Remembrance for Victims and Survivors of the Oklahoma City Bombing 19 years ago. Americans may pause to remember victims of terrorism at home and abroad, and honor the heroes who have supported them, and redouble efforts to build the kind of world that is worthy of their legacy.

Members decided that BreAna Zwegardt would receive the VFW scholarship for this year. The VFW will make the first payment and then the Auxiliary will make the second payment.

Ruth made a motion that the donations for the next quarter...April through June...should be given to cancer.

At the beginning of the meeting, members decorated two baskets for the volunteer fire department and filled them both with crackers, hand-made cookies, candy and mints. After the meeting Connie and Wanda took them to the station and placed them there. This was in appreciation for all that these volunteers do for St. Francis and Cheyenne County. Members know people who have been touched by these special people and the work that they do, whenever they are called upon to serve.

As there was no more business, Marlys led members in prayer. Connie gave the closing remarks. The next meeting will be on May 17 at Ruth Moore's house. Roll call will be "Any May Remembrance."

McDonald Garden Club

The McDonald Town and Country Garden Club held their annual plant and food sale on Wednesday, May 12.

Due to the rainy day, the crowd was a little smaller, but everyone came to buy. Tables of plants, annuals and perennials and a big table of food was all gone by noon, and the proceeds taken in were very good.

By noon everything was sold, and the members went to Two Lee's for lunch. Eleven members and one guest, Lillian Sulzman of Dresden enjoyed the day. A business meeting was held with Margie Hubbard opening the meeting. Roll call was "Name a new plant you plan to grow this year." Reports were given.

Margie reported on the state meeting that she and Diane Montgomery attended in Hays in April.

She said that the club had received a blue ribbon on their rating sheet and placed fifth in the state on their yearbook. Both Margie and Diane said they enjoyed the classes as they were very educational.

Kay Miller read "What I Should Be Doing In My Garden In May." Club members will decorate the tables for the Alumni Day on Friday evening at 7 p.m. in the school gym.

A Garden Club Tour for June was discussed. It is planned for June 9. Members are to meet at 9 a.m. at the Senior Center and then meet other members in Atwood on the way to Dresden. They will tour four greenhouses in Dresden before going to Oberlin for lunch. They will tour an antique store after lunch.
