Demolition Derby to be more competitive

By Karen Krien

karen.k@nwkansas.com The Cheyenne County Fair Board has joined the Championship Demolition Derby Association which will bring more competitors to the county's fair derby on Saturday, Aug. 7 There is already a lot of excitement about the derby, Zimbelman, said Clay Derby Committee chairman. To qualify to run in the Championship Derby, the driver will need to place first, second or third in one of the participating shows. See related article.

Last year, the seating sold out so those wanting to attend need to arrive early to get a seat.

"We are expecting at least 30 cars and probably more" "That's Zimbelman, said. more than last year's."

This is the second year for the "point system" with St. Francis, Goodland and Colby all participating. Clay Zimbelman will be the judge for all three derbies. Points accumulated by the drivers awarded. will be added to find the results. The total purse will be $1,000.

Still time to plan float entries

Plan your float and parade entries around the theme, "Cowboy Boots And Country Roots," said Carla Lampe, parade coordinator. "We want the 2010 parade on Saturday to be the biggest parade ever.

"The theme gives those planning floats and other entries plenty of ideas to work with."

The parade will begin at 10 a.m. on Saturday down St. Francis' Main Street starting at College Street in front of the high school. All entries are to meet at the school and those floats being judged need to be at the school by 9 a.m. Check the map with this article.
