

DRIVING THE HOLT COMBINE in the parade each day at the Tri-State Antique Engine and Thresher Show were David Burns and ElsaCraig Burr

Thresher show crowds entertained

ELISA HAACK, above, is the thresher queen's youngest great-granddaughter, attended the activities; Norm Dorsch, left, watches the Princess Kaitlin Figgins throw a bundle of wheat into the threshing machine; Rod Kleppers daughter-in-law plays the 10-key Calliope owned by Carl Bergman from Aspen, Colo.

