Thank you

The family of Owen Morrow thanks all of the people of our Tri-state area for the kindness he received as he made his home with us these last six years. Thanks to the Church family, the medical community, and the Good Samaritan Village as Owen lived and passed from this life. Thank you John and Natalie Knodel. The Morrrows.

What a wonderful party we had! A special thank you to the children, grandchildren, Floyd, Twila, Jay, Roger and all those who sent beautiful cards and flowers. I hope everyone is fortunate enough to celebrate their 80th birthday feeling so loved and cared for. Elaine and Floyd Jensen

Thank you so much to all family and friends who came and celebrated our Mother's life. She loved St. Francis so very much. Special words and prayers by Reverend Cico and Reverend Zimelman were so appreciated. Joan Wellman worked her magic as she always does. Lunch provided by the ladies of United Methodist Church was also appreciated and enjoyed. Memorial arrangements by John Knodel were performed so nicely and efficiently. We appreciated resting our heads each night and awoke to a wonderful breakfast at the new addition to town, what a wonderful addition, The Spencer House. Thank you to all!!! Arrilla Zimelman's Family
