I want to thank everyone for their prayers, cards that I received, and words of encouragement during my cancer treatments. It really has helped me through the tough times with a positive attitude. I'm so thankful I live in America where I have the freedom to choose my doctors and place of treatment, which may not be possible when and if Obama Care becomes law. Sincere thanks, Marilyn Frisbie

Thank you to everyone that sent gifts, memorials or cards at my father's passing. It is uplifting to know I have so many caring friends in the community. Special thanks to my crew at the Bowling Alley and Dairy King for keeping things running so we all could leave town for the funeral. Don't know what I would have done without you. In God's love, Jenny and David Wright and family

Thank you for the many visits, cards, thoughts and prayers. Lee Busby
