Casey's Comments

By Casey McCormick mccormickcasey@rocketmail.com God gives us gifts.

I believe one of the greatest blessings is our ability to take in His creation. Through our fives senses we are allowed to understand the wonders around

For instance, do you know what geraniums smell like? It is not so much the fragrance of the flower but the pungent earthiness of the plant itself. Unique to this one plant from the multitudes of others. The experience of that smell helps us to know that plant.

The sight of a new born babe. mother to outside world, yet creation in the most pure form.

Picking up a stone on a beach. Feeling the polish that came from the gifts to understand all its sand, water and time. The hard wonders.

surface of an object who's origin so vastly predates the holder's Sept. 9, at the Peace Lutheran existence. Church in St. Francis.

My example of sound may stretch the boundaries of likes. Scottish bagpipes seem to be a take it or leave it deal. But if the dear Lord has also touched your heart with an appreciation of the pipes, no purer sound can be heard than the melody of the highlands played outdoors and "rrrrolling o'er the hills of heatherrrr."

You can choose your own favorite taste. Picture looking at the menu of your favorite restaurant. Each dish easily brings the memory of good Distressed from the journey from experiences or the imaginings of something new to sample.

So it's hard to imagine living on this planet and not having
