Cheyenne Theater has new manager

By Amanda Miller

The Cheyenne Theater board hired Samantha Beeson as the new manager of the theater. Samantha started managing the theater the last week in October. She is in charge of the day to day operations at the theater, and attends all theater board meetings. Sam grew up in Bird City, and graduated from Cheylin. After graduation, she moved to Lindsay and attended Bethany College. She now lives in St. Francis, and works at the Cheyenne Theater and at Fresh Seven Coffee in the mornings. Sam said she has always loved films. While in college, she and her friends used to travel to Salina to watch indie films at a smaller theater. Sam said her favorite movies are action films, but she really enjoys all genres. Her favorite part of managing the theater is getting to see the behind the scenes aspect of the films. Sam said she really enjoys watching movies and seeing how everything works is a lot of fun. She took me on a little tour of the theater and showed me the projector, and some of what her job entails. When I asked if she got an input on deciding what movies will be shown, Sam said that there is a booking agent that makes those decisions. However requests can be made. The theater tries to show a wide variety of movies so that there is something for everyone. Samantha is excited about having this opportunity and said, "I am really happy to be entertaining everyone in Cheyenne County!" This week the Cheyenne Theater will be showing Thor: The Dark World in 3D and in 2D on Sunday.

and after drawing Schultz's name, Rita claimed her prize at the furniture and gifts store. New numbers were drawn for this week's ads on Pages 1B and 2B. If you have a matching number, claim it by Monday at 5. After that, those numbers will no longer be valid as new numbers will be drawn. Everyone will want to save their tickets received from purchases and bring them to the drawing on Dec. 16. You might be the winner of $1,000 in scrip or $100 in scrip. There are nine St. Francis businesses participating in the Christmas On Us promotion: Bier's Hometown Store, Bumper to Bumper Auto Parts, Owens True Value, Republican Valley Auto Parts, Schultz's Limited, The Saint Francis Herald, United Methodist Thrift Store, St. Francis Super's and Eagle Convenience Store. With every $10 spent in these businesses, the customer receives a ticket. However, it is not necessary to make a purchase in The Herald office as once a week, people can come in and get a free ticket.

Each week, in the B section of The Herald and Times, numbers will be listed. Do not go to the business where the number was placed in the ad - come to The Herald office. The numbers without a "" will receive $50 in scrip. Those with "" mean the lucky person with the matching number will receive a gift in one of the businesses. When matching the "*" numbers, cards will be drawn at The Herald office and the winner and a photographer from The Herald will go to the business where they will be photographed receiving the prize. There will be a drawing for the next three weeks, and winning ticket numbers can be found in the B section ads. The big drawing for $1,000 and $100 scrip, along with any leftover $50 and gift prizes will be held at 5:30 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 16. Everyone is urged to collect their tickets and mark Dec. 16 on their calendar. Along with the drawing, there will be entertainment for the whole family! Look for more information in the coming weeks. Plan to attend and win!

Auxiliary ladies hold annual Thanksgiving

By Norma Martinez
bc.times@nwkans.com

The American Legion Auxiliary annual Thanksgiving dinner brought out about 90 people to enjoy the meal and entertainment. The meal consisted of turkey, mashed potatoes and gravy, green beans with bacon, and an assortment of jello salads as well as a lettuce salad. Cherry, apple, cream pies and the traditional pumpkin pie was set out for dessert.

them to lose a beat. They performed just as well as they did back in April when they appeared at the Wesleyan Community Church. After singing "Jonah You Wanna Listen To the Lord" and "I'm Going There", they introduced themselves as; Andrew Wells singing tenor, Will Arasmith singing baritone, his father Dave Arasmith singing bass, and Jared Kennedy singing bass. Jared sang a song for the first time to an audience. He was in an auto accident several years ago and was in a coma. Lots of people came and prayed over him and talked to him. The only thing he remembers about this is a song that someone played for him several times titled "The Anchor Holds".

The meal was prepared by the Auxiliary ladies consisting of; Hulda Dorsch, Carol Peters, Avis Hazuka, Joy Andregge, Darlene Burr, Val Coleman, Hollis DePron, Dorothy Chipperfield, Wanda Dowdy, Mary Dorsch, Rose Gordon, Bertha Sanders and Darlene Brubaker. Carol Marsh's daughter, Larrietta Marsh, was in town for the event and helped in the kitchen. Norman and Mary Dorsch's grandson, Levi Travis, who was visiting his grandparents, enjoyed visiting with old time acquaintances. At 7 p.m., the Armouraires, that were brought in by DeAnza Ambrosier, kept everyone entertained, laughing, and enjoying their gospel quartet style singing. They had lost one of their singers, and were down to four singers, but that didn't cause bibles and he had him come up and tell it to the crowd. For those that missed them and have heard those in attendance talking about it, they will be in McCook, Neb. at the Norris Ave. Chapel, 1211 Norris Ave., on Jan. 19, at 10 a.m.
