"Our junior varsity players gained valuable varsity tournament experience today," said Norton Coach David Stover. "Despite extremely difficult playing conditions, I thought all of our golfers showed improvement. Leading the way was Josh Green, shooting a career low round and earning his first varsity individual medalist honors.

"Hopefully, the momentum gained today will carry over into the season ending Junior Varsity Tournament in Norton on Tuesday (today) and in WaKeeney on Thursday."

well, Lakeside, 42; Brummer, Tipton, 43; Matter, Jewell, 43; VanLoenen, Logan, 43.

"We were able to get our junior varsity golfers valuable tournament experience today," said Norton Coach David Stover. "For many of our golfers, it was their first tournament play this season.

"We adjusted rather well to playing on a sand greens course. Our golfers viewed this tournament as a positive experience.
