

OBITUARIES

Darlene Gladys Veh
Jan. 7, 1929 - May 26, 2004

Darlene Gladys Veh, 75, died May 26, 2004, at the Norton County Hospital.

Mrs. Veh was born Jan. 7, 1929, in WaKeeney, the daughter of Henry Jr. and Grace Frances (Spena) Boxberger.

She lived with her family in WaKeeney before they moved to Norton in 1941. She attended school in WaKeeney and Norton, and received a bachelor of music degree from Bethany College and a master of education degree from Fort Hays State University. She was taught in St. Francis for two years, one year in Glade, four years in Kensington, and two years in Kirwin in elementary and high school band and vocal.

On July 11, 1953, she and William Myron Veh were married in Norton. They lived in WaKeeney before moving to Logan in 1954. In 1964, they moved to Norton, where she taught vocal music in the elementary and junior high schools for 20 years.

In 1984, they moved to Oberlin where they operated Enfield Memorial Chapel until their retirement in 1993, at which time they returned to Norton.

She was a member of the Immanuel Lutheran Church where she was one of the church organists and choir director for many years. She was also the past president of the Lutheran Women Missionary League. She was a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, National Association of Music Educators, Kansas Music Educator's Association, Kansas National Educator's Association, and a life member of the National Educator's Association. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and had been awarded the Paul Harris Medal for her contributions to the Rotary Scholarship Foundation. She had also served as the music director for 11 years at Sunflower Girls State.

She enjoyed doing handwork, collecting stamps and coins, reading historical novels, playing bridge, refinishing antique furniture and playing the piano, organ, and "Taps" for the American Legion. She also enjoyed traveling with her husband, both internationally and to their grandchildren's activities.

She was preceded in death by her grandparents, her parents, and a brother-in-law, Roger Wolfe.

Survivors include her husband, Myron, of the home in Norton; two daughters, Arloa Kay and Joe Barnes, Smith Center; Tona Leigh and Ron Leiker, Andover; a son, Darron Douglas and Dawn Veh, Hutchinson; a sister, Celia Dee Wolfe, Norton; and seven grandchildren.

Friends may call at Enfield Funeral Home today from 3-8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Veh's family and church family will hold a Celebration of Life service at 11 a.m. Saturday at the church followed at 1:30 p.m. with a funeral service at Enfield Funeral Home. Burial will be in Norton Cemetery.

Memorials have been established to the Immanuel Lutheran Choir Music Fund or Organ Fund and to the Norton Public Library.

Contributions may be sent to the choir or organ fund in care of the church, 814 N. Second St., Norton, Kan., 67654, or to the library at 408 N. Norton, Norton, Kan., 67654.

Joseph Kelly Jones
Sept. 15, 1957 - May 26, 2004

Joseph Kelly Jones, 46, died in Colby on May 26.

He was born in Norton on Sept. 15, 1957, the son of Montra and Mary (Berney) Jones.

Mr. Jones grew up in the Norton and Edmond areas. He attended the schools there and had been making his home in Colby.

Survivors include: his parents Montra and Mary Jones, Kensington; two brothers, Montra Jones, Jr., Colby; George Jones, Ellsworth; one half-brother, Jim Hunt; and two sisters, Betty Gitchel, Phillipsburg; and Opal Urbank, Ellsworth.

Graveside services and burial were held today at the Edmond Cemetery with the Rev. Gene Jones officiating.

A memorial has been established in his name.

Contributions may be made to the Joe Jones Memorial Fund in care of Enfield Funeral Home, 215 W. Main, Norton.

HANSEN MUSEUM

By LEE FAVRE, director

The southwest has come to the Hansen Museum in the form of paintings and sculptures in the most recent exhibit, "West by Southwest".

Among the pictures on display are a Peter Rogers oil entitled "Storm in the Valley", which spans an approximate seven feet and depicts a wondrous landscape under a stormy sky, and two Clark Hulings oils entitled "The Man From Spain" and "Impressions of Old Santa Fe".

Born in 1922, Clark Hulings spent a portion of his childhood in Spain, which accounts for his portrait painting of an elderly Span-

Couple sets ceremony
for June 12

Audra Schmidt and Kendall Sitts are planning a wedding in the afternoon of June 12 at the First Presbyterian Church of Syracuse.

iard that now hangs near the guest register as you enter the museum.

"Impressions of Old Santa Fe" is a 1978 oil painting by Hulings, created after making Santa Fe his home. This 4-foot-by-6-foot painting embodies a busy dirt street of a Mexican village and the inhabitants within. Hulings has captured life in this painting with lighting effects that make you almost feel the heat of the sun, smell the fresh burrodung, and hear the buzz of the flies that you know are there.

UNEXPECTED BLOOMING—606 SUNSET DRIVE—NORTON, KANSAS

If you are looking for an unexpected blooming this Spring, there is a house for you on 606 Sunset Drive. The ground level floor will be your favorite with the great view from the large kitchen and dining room. An even greater view welcomes you as you walk into the living room. Two grand size bathrooms, both with walk in showers are adjacent to the bedrooms. The laundry room unfurls in the area between the bedrooms. Entry to this home can be from the double car garage or the front porch that opens to an entry area with a large closet. From the double car garage, there is an entry to the full basement with a shop area, bathroom, shower, family room and three bedrooms. The heating and cooling is performed by the Lennox Elite Series and the hot water heater is an A.O. Smith. The Rain Bird Sprinkler System keeps the yard blooming and you can enjoy the out-of-doors from the wood deck or cement patio. Call Duane McEwen of Metcalf Real Estate at 785-877-3032 to get the pick of the season with this unexpected blooming home.
