

FREEDOM Will Prevail

Freedom means not infringing on the freedom of others and not letting others infringe on your freedoms. I am glad that I have the perception of freedom, or free will, but I can't imagine what it would be like not to, nor do I know the source of this perception in myself. I am also glad that I live in an environment where I am unconstrained in my exercise of freedom. It makes the quality of my life much higher because I have the ability to pursue the dreams I choose.

Being an American lets me have the freedom that allows me to let my heart and soul be free. It means I can share my heart's opinion without being killed. Just thinking about all the good people who died for us lets me know that being an American is the greatest gift. Good people die for freedom every day. We, as people of America, should always be thankful for those who do the best they can to keep America free. I'm thankful for people who died to keep our America free. Freedom is what being an American means to me.

What does it mean to be an American? It means to have freedom. To have your rights and to stand up for your country in times of need. If we weren't Americans then we wouldn't be able to do the stuff we do now.

Like go to college and choose what we want to do for a living. We can have the right to say what we want to say and not get in trouble for speaking our minds.

I love living in America. This land stands for freedom and rights. I like getting up in the morning and know that I can choose what I want to do that day. It feels good knowing that I do not have to fear for my life if I disagree with something the President did or did not do, but the people in Iraq, they do not have this freedom and that's why the American soldiers are fighting for them. So remember if or when you abuse your freedom and rights, that there are people in Iraq and other countries that are suffering from not having these rights. So people, be thankful for what you have and that you live in America.

Freedom is the only way we can express ourselves. Without freedom there are no paintings, there are no games, and there is no purpose to life. Being free is the reason we are who we are and I would never let that go.

Freedom is here. Freedom is now. Freedom is US! Now I ask you; Do you ever wonder what our lives would be like without freedom? Freedom: cherish it for life.

Freedom is the way Americans live their

Being an American to me is being free, being able to do stuff I want. It also means I can hang out with friends and wear whatever I want, not doing what the president or ruler wants me to do. I can buy stuff I want not what they want me to buy. I think everyone in the world should be like us Americans, just so they can do what they want and not what everyone else does. If everyone was like us Americans they could act and do what they want. If they were free they would be extremely happy and not always sad. They could have fun times with their families and friends. I am proud to be an American. I am proud to be a citizen of the United States. I am proud to live in such a free and beautiful society.
