

To me it means to have freedoms that others don't have the opportunity to have. It means to do what we feel and want to do. You can say what is on your mind and you are not punished for criticism. It has meant

To me being an American means freedom to say what I want and be able to do things that are fun. Freedom is a word that means many things, like not being watched when you are not at home. Also it means the government can't control you as much as it

What being an American means to me is that you have honor and respect for America. You will also stand up for your country and not be afraid to show people that you are proud to be an American. You will

Freedom
What freedom means to me.
Freedom to me is peaceful thoughts and dreams.
Freedom is love for my country and sol-

Being an American means having the rights available to me like no other countries have. I can make decisions in my life such as how I will worship God, what education I want, what kind of job I will have, how I

What being an American means to me. I have the freedom to choose what I do with my life. I have the freedom to wear whatever I want. In some countries, you can not do that. I can say whatever I want. I am allowed to go to school and get a good education. Some countries like Iraq, the kids over there don't get a good education.

Freedom is being able to do what I want to do and have freedom of speech. What being in America means to me. Being free, being able to hang out with whoever I want,

Freedom means a lot to me. It means having the right to speak your mind without getting in trouble. It also means you can have your own religion and you have the right to type what you feel, as long as it's true. Some countries don't have the freedom

To me, freedom is the ability to make decisions. The ability to make a difference in the world, or let someone else do that for you. Freedom is the capability to stand out in the crowd, or to choose to hide in the shad-doing what I couldn't if I were in a Communist country. Because you won't get stuck with a job that you won't excel at or you don't like.

would if we did not live in a democracy. Not being free is hard to think about, it is just hard to think about not having all the things we have here. Just think sometime about not being free, it is different.

I am glad of the freedom I have and I thank the U.S. soldiers and other soldiers that have died in the battlefield for my freedom. I am really glad of where I live and that I don't get hurt when I say something bad about the President. I am very thankful for being an American.

ows. You can dream all you want to, but with freedom you can chase after your dreams and make your dreams come true. That is what freedom is to me.

Tanner Griffith

I love that I can walk down the street knowing I'm free!

Not being treated like a slave 'cause Miss Liberty also stands for me!

For the men who died, I give them all my pride,

for the red, white and blue, I bring to you why I'm proud to be an American!!

Anonymous

I'm proud to be an American because I have freedoms here that others don't have. I get to decide my future, not my family that I was born in. I can say what I think without being punished for saying it. I get the choice of who my friends are. I'm proud of where I live and what my rights are.

Freedom is something you can't see or touch yet we live in it every day. Thanks to the millions of soldiers that have died to give us this freedom, that much of us do not even appreciate, even though we would not be able to do much that we do every single day from the time we get up to the time we go to bed.
