4-H NEWS

Busy Jayhawkers

By TIMOTHY BECKER

The Busy Jayhawkers 4-H Club met Sunday for its annual swimming party.

For roll call, members shared their favorite project that they are entering in the fair. The club discussed preparations for the Norton County Fair.

Jacob VanSkiike told the club about his garden that included corn, dill, onions and more. Joshua VanSkiike also talked about his horticulture project.

Luke VanSkiike told the club about his electricity project. It is an extension cord with a multiple plug-in box, which Mr. Rule helped him with. Jessica Gilgenbach told about her dad's shop light, which she repaired with new and used parts. She is entering it in the fair. Katie Bohl told members about her Siamese cat named Simba that she entered in the Dog, Cat and Hand Pet Show.

The Norton County Fair is next week.

The next club meeting is Sunday, Aug. 15, at the 4-H Building.
