

WILSONVILLE

By VELMA HOLTZE and LAURIE LAWS

Dean and Margaret Brown's great-grandson, Branden Jones, three-year-old son of Samantha and Ryon Jones of Cambridge, had the misfortune to fall while playing and broke his arm just above the elbow. After being taken to the Cambridge Hospital he was sent to Kearney hospital where a temporary cast was put on. A hard cast will be put on this week.

Kaye, Tyler and Casey Coburn of Atkinson, Neb., enjoyed the fair while visiting her parents, Darrel and June Palmer

Darrel, June and Tim Palmer spent the past week with their son, Todd and wife, Jacqueline, Palmer at Joplin, Mo. They especially enjoyed the sights at Silver Dollar City.

There were quite a number of Wilsonville people at the "Relay for Life" Saturday evening in Arapahoe. Several joined the survivors as they made their first lap at 7 o'clock. The next lap they were joined by family members. After that, everyone got into the spirit as the walkers continued walking all night. Appetites were satisfied as various groups had a "Cream Can supper" with others serving polish dogs, cotton candy, snow cones, ice cream and watermelon, all for donations, which went to the cancer fund. Luminaries were lighted between 9:30 and 10 p.m. Many other events continued through the night such as a scavenger hunt and guessing contests. Dr. Stear had the closing devotions Sunday morning. The total amount collected is not available at this time, but they are sure it will exceed $18,000.

Ella Ruf spoke at the Baptist-Christian Church Sunday morning, telling about her "Crusade for Christ" trip to Mexico this past spring. Ella is very active in the campus "Crusade for Christ" at Doane College. The congregation enjoyed looking at the pictures Ella had on display. Connie Wilson also had charge of the meditation thoughts prior to the Communion service relating to friends who support the Relay for Life and introduced a long time friend from Ulysses, who came to support Connie in this walk. However she emphasized the greatest friend of all is Jesus Christ.

Carla Holtze spent a little time this past week at the home of her daughter, Kendra Hoagland and family at Hastings. She was assisting Kendra with freezing sweet corn.

Dick and Joan McLaughlin returned Tuesday from their three week vacation to Missouri, Wisconsin, Dakota, Montana, Idaho and Wyoming. They report that everything was perfect including the weather, the sights, the wedding and the fish fry. The latter two were the real reason for the trip.

Bob Vise and wife of Warsaw, Neb., visited Thursday afternoon in the Merlin Wilmont home. Bob and Merline were classmates in the 30s. Bob moved to Colorado with his mother, Nell Vise and sisters, Eva and Dorothy in 1939. He was a grandson of A. E. and May Best and returned to spend several summers with them. They were returning home from Colorado where they had visited their children.

Susan Riggs of Ulysses, came Saturday and was a guest until Monday in the Allen and Connie Wilson home. Susan and Connie have been longtime friends having gone to school together.

Joe and Alice Kasson, Charley and Dorothy Ankenman and Kendall and Virginia Rice went to Stratton Thursday evening to attend the pancake supper, which was a benefit for Rose Mary Walker who is fighting a battle with cancer. The Kasson's and Rice's also went to Wichita to help Curtis and Evelyn Kasson observe their 60th wedding anniversary.

Curtis and Evelyn are there to be with their son, Dennis, who is hospitalized after the plane crash three weeks ago and also his wife, Sandy.

Kenneth and Carla Holtze and Kenneth Ankenman's and many of their family and Larry Alexanders from Cambridge attended the annual Ankenman family reunion at Norton on Sunday which was attended by approximately 75 people coming from France, California, Arizona, Oklahoma and Indiana besides Kansas and Nebraska. Joe Kasson's and Kendall Rice's also arrived from Wichita just in time to eat dinner. The descendants of Minnie Ankenman Adkins hosted this year's reunion. Kenneth and Carla and Charley and Dorothy visited Harry Hutchins in the Norton Hospital before returning home.

Surprise

Warren Rice was pleasantly surprised with a belated 70th birthday party late Saturday afternoon. Warren and wife, Arlene had been invited to son, Terry's home to enjoy some time with their two daughters, Angela and fiancé, Travis Squires, on Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Rosanna and Alex Elizondo and baby, Japheth from Omaha. But on Warren's arrival he was greeted by not only those, but by his other three children, all the grandchildren, but two, and the five great grandchildren. This included daughter, Cynthia Milligan and husband, Mark and son, Stephen of Denver, their daughter, Elisa Johnson and Saffron, Denny and Conner from a military base in Missouri and the Milligan's son, Patrick and his son, Mason from Denver; daughter, Tina and Gordon Cook and their children Courtney, Meghan and Alexis from Scottsbluff; son Tony and Patty Rice and children, Whitney and Catlin of Wilsonville. Additional guests who came to see Angela and Rasanna were their grandmother, Verla Chambers, great-grandmother, Mabal Cooms and Uncle Curtis Chambers and family all of Norton.

The afternoon and evening were spent in the lovely landscaped yard of the Rice's with lots of visiting, reminiscing, laughing and, of course, eating. Warren expressed at church Sunday morning that his cattle pens may not be full but after all he has his family and that is most important.

Royal Neighbors of America
Royal Neighbors of America met Aug. 2 for their annual noon eat-out dinner at the Rocket Inn in Indianola with seven members and seven visitors present. Prayer was given by Dorothy Ankenman.

Oracle Myrna Harper, hostess, introduced everyone and conducted the business meeting. Roll call, minutes and Treasurers report were given and accepted. Member, Irma Mart is back at the Beaver City Manor in Room 101 and her birthday is Aug. 17. Several projects on "Make a Difference Day" were discussed.

The next meeting will be Sept. 16 at 10 a.m. at Marilyn Wolzen's home to finalize plans for the upcoming District Convention on Sept. 24.

Baptist-Christian Women
Members of the Baptist-Christian Women's Fellowship drove to the Beaver City Manor on July 5 to entertain residents with music, devotions and lunch. The women were grateful to Margaret Spence for assisting with the music by playing some "old time music".

A short business meeting was held prior to going to Beaver City. President Avis Wolfe opened the meeting with thoughts, "Don't Throw Away Tomorrows" and prayer. The White Cross Chairman, Alice Kasson, presented the list for the white cross quota. This list will be posted on the bulletin board.

Association meetings will be in Holdrege on Sept. 26; Family Reunion, the state meeting will be in Kearney Sept. 17-19 and Women's Conference will be at Camp Merrill in October. Guest day was discussed but since the speaker is not available in September, this will be postponed.

(Last week's news)

Velma and Carla Holtze accompanied Margene Holtze to Hastings on Wednesday. They spent the afternoon in the Russell Hoagland home, Velma and Margene were making the acquaintance of baby Trenton. Kendra and little son, Jake had made Velma a birthday cake which they enjoyed before they returned home Carla remained until Thursday when she came home with the Laverne Banzhaf family from Cambridge who also went down to see Trenton.

Adeline Ballou, her daughter, Jo and husband, Brad Schwartz, of Kearney and her sister, Mary Jane McDowell of Hastings returned home on Wednesday after spending a few days visiting their brother, Jack and wife at Oklahoma City. Several from Wilsonville were in Cambridge on Saturday taking in the fifty some garage sales.
