

NORCATUR NEWS

By NORCATUR NEWSLETTER VOLUNTEERS

Letter to the Norcatur News volunteers, dated Sept. 8: Since I can't go visit you, the News is the next best thing. You do a wonderful thing—you bring memories and cheer to many. Someday, please publish how many copies you send out each week. It takes a lot of patience, giving of your time, etc. I'll bet you get personal satisfaction from the doing—at least I hope you do. You do a remarkable job of printing interesting items.

I graduated from Norcatur Rural High School in 1935. That will be 70 years next reunion. I doubt I'll be able to go. I'm on oxygen 24/7. Do you have an oxygen source there in Norcatur?

I began writing my life history last March and I'm nowhere near done with it. I've been amazed at the things I've remembered once I got started. I'm 85 1/2 years old and am a cancer survivor. I had lymphoma. My oncologist says it's gone—cured!

I'm able to do lots of things for myself but there are things I still can't do. There was a time when I could do very little. My daughter, Lesley, lives with me. She works as a nurse here in the village. I have other help as I need it. This village has a population of 15,000.

Hallie Bell Case THREE PRAIRIE UNIT

The Three Prairie Unit took their annual tour Sept. 9. They met at the Norton Manor where they visited the Norcatur people living there, Mildred Schwab, Anetta Knapp, Arnold Jackson, Ethel Miller and Maxine Brooks. They ate lunch at a local café and returned to Betty Reid's apartment at Whispering Pines. A short business meeting was held and refreshments served.

Club members there were Norma McCallister, Estella Harold, Bee Nelson, Marguerite Clark, Lula Hix, Betty Reid, Maxine Brooks and Helen McVay. Next meeting day will be Thursday, Oct. 14, at 1 p.m. to plan out the new club year.

Dorothy Ward is recuperating nicely from pacemaker surgery on Sept. 3, but not back to her job on the Norcatur News yet. Marguerite Clark and Bee Nelson are trying to fill her shoes. Hurry and get well, Dorothy, you are greatly missed.

Birthdays and anniversaries: Alice Barnett, Rodney O'Hare - Sept. 15; Lisa Rhodes, Robert and Leona Schoenrad - Sept. 16; Joel Miller - Sept. 17; Doug Dempewolf - Sept. 20.

Former Norcatur Grade School principal Robert and Beanie Fiser of Belleville celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a bus trip around the Great Lakes. They were married Sept. 16, 1954. Their children and spouses are Debbie and Tim Rhine of Mahaska, and Frank and Donna Fiser of LaPorte, Colo., and they have four grandchildren. The Fisers came to Norcatur the fall of 1955 and left in the spring of 1957.

NORCATUR PRE-SCHOOL NEWS

At the beginning of our school year, four students are attending classes: Ainsley Karnes, Dalaina Smith, Brady Sumner and Amy Wentz. We're off to a great start.

The Pre-school really needs all the donations we can get for our upcoming rummage sale. Any kind of knickknack, toys, lamps, small appliances or whatever you don't want around the house anymore would be appreciated. Only kids clothing and coats; no other clothing, please.

Keith Anthony has been with his daughter, Lynn (Sissy) and Bob McFarland, at their home in Killeen, Texas, for the past several weeks. Bob was diagnosed with terminal cancer several months ago, and passed away at their home Saturday evening, Sept. 11. The funeral was held Sept. 12 at the Crawford Bowers Funeral Home in Killeen, Texas, 76542. Keith and Lynn may be reached at her home, 2010 Cedar View Drive, Killeen, Texas, 76543.

Gerald and Judy Jackson attended the funeral of Pauline Shoemaker in Colby on Saturday morning, Sept. 11. Pauline was a sister of Gerald, and will be missed by all.

Pansy and Kenneth Price had a busy weekend. They took a trip Saturday, Sept. 11, to the hog roast at Lyle; Sunday afternoon they went to Logan to see the Hats and Headresses display at the Hansen Museum, then that evening they attended the Jennings Museum benefit.

Oran and LaVerne Milner and Goldie Brewer visited Jay and Vi Gallentine at their new apartment in Norton Sunday afternoon, Sept. 12. They have settled in a very nice apartment complex.

M.J. Dempewolf accompanied Kris and Derry Bishop and Canaan Bishop to the Kansas State Fair on Saturday, Sept. 11, where they attended the REO Speedwagon/Concert.

Chris and Sharee Dempewolf went to the Trick Pony concert in Colby Saturday evening, Sept. 11. Congratulations to Sharee Dempewolf, who is now a Certified Medication Aide (CMA). Sharee took classes in WaKeeney this summer for about 14 days. Sharee is already a Certified Nurse Aide, and works at the Good Samaritan Center in Oberlin.

PRAIRIE VIEW

By VIVIAN JANSONIUS

Several from the community donated blood at the Phillipsburg Blood Drive. They were Rodney Jansonius, Willard Jansonius, Derek Kats, Dian Tien and Harlan Van De Wege.

Lone Prairie 4-H Club met Sept. 13 at the Prairie View Senior Citizen/Community Center. Five members, four leaders, three parents and eight guests answered the roll call of "Your Worst School Subject". Newly elected officers for the coming year are President, Tim Jansonius; Vice-President, Shyanne Thompson; Treasurer, Eric Woodside; Secretary, Autumn Tien; Reporter, Samantha Tien; Council Members, Jordan Girard and Brady Tien. The Pizza Hut will be the location for the club's 5:30 p.m., Oct. 3 meeting. Michaela Girard gave a demonstration; Aaron Tien gave a project talk; and Eric Woodside gave a quiz. Tim Jansonius led the group in recreation and the Greving family provided refreshments.

A "carry-in" dinner was held recently at the Prairie View Senior Citizen/Community Center. Attending were Candice Stevens, Almena; John Glen and Doreen Hoffman, Logan; Warren and Hazel Sidman, Marvin and June Harbers, Glen and Linda Hultgren, the Rev. Jeffrey and Linda Van Der Weele, Rodney Jansonius, Julianna Lasniewski, Goldie Barker, Faith VanDiest, Clazine Engelsman, Vivian Jansonius, Hazel Jansonius, Gertrude Erickson and Erma Jean Nyland.

The monthly meeting of the Prairie Homemakers Family and Community Education unit will be held at 6:30 p.m., Monday in the Prairie View Senior Citizen/Community Center. Each one is to bring a slow cooking recipe for supper. Hostesses are Diana Greving and Wanda Schemper.
