

Letters from Eisenhower Elementary

Mrs. Hillman's Kindergarten — Section A

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like a Dora doll, a kitchen set, and a Barbie doll. My sister Kendra wants a Barbie too, please. I have been good and Kendra has been good.

Love, Brianna

Dear Santa,
Merry Christmas! I was good this year. I want a Spiderman race car and Spiderman 2 movie. I want to give you a hug!

Love, Tyson

Dear Santa,
I have tried to be good this year. Please bring me a tractor, semi or some cars. I would like a purple flatbed semi or a red one. Thank you.

Love, Owen

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like a whole box of candy. My brothers and sisters are good and I am good, too! I would also like a football jersey with pads and a real football with a pumper and the coolest tee in the world! I want to look at the reindeer fly.

Love, Landon

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like a green monster truck, a remote control race car, books and games and candy.

Love, Mitch H.

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like play horses, new play tent, and Barbie doll house. I also wish for new Barbies and new Bratz dolls. I have been trying really hard to be good this year.

Love, Alyssa

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like a Spiderman room and a Playstation 2 and games.

Love, Tyler

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like a dirt bike, rescue hero, a pickup truck, a toy IMCA modified race car, a new Kansas City Chiefs football helmet like uncle Bob. I would also like a train and track. Thank you and Merry Christmas Santa!

Love, Chris

Dear Santa,

Love, Connor

Mrs. Hillman's Kindergarten — Section B

Dear Santa,
Please bring me a 50cc dirt bike so I can ride bikes with my brother. Please bring something really nice for my Mom and Dad. I have been really good this year. I will leave some milk and cookies out for you. Thank you Santa I love you.

Love, Jacob

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like Transformer, Vegi-Tale boat, Power Ranger.

Love, Levi

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like to have a swing set. I could use a bouncy ball. I really would like some dress-up outfits in a box, and some shoes to go with it and also a crown and a wand so I can be a fairy princess. I know this is a lot to ask for but I know you can help me because you are Santa Claus. Ask Mrs. Claus if she can do the sewing for you because I know that you have big hands from working so hard all day and all night and her hands are smaller and can thread a needle easier and work with a scissors to cut material easier. I love you Santa and Mrs. Santa very much. P.S. I'll send you a picture.

Love, Alexis

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I would like you to bring me a Barbie fashion doll. Please bring Kayleigh a Spongebob chair. Hannah would like a Bratz doll. Bring my daddy a Texas costume for next Halloween. I want my mommy to get a carousel horse. Bring my grandma a breakable tea set. I know she won't break it. Since you have been so good, I will leave some milk and cookies. I will leave your reindeer some carrots too. I love you Santa!

Love, Treianne

Happy Holidays

The Cobbler's Christmas Guest

(A Holiday Parable)

Many years ago there lived in a small village a cobbler by the name of Conrad. Though alone and poor, this kindly old man always had friendly and consoling words for everyone.

At Christmas time, some neighbors decided to visit their friend Christmas morning since he had no family. To their amazement, they saw that his wrinkled old face was radiant.

As they entered his shop, they saw a room made festive with holly and evergreen, and the table was laden with delicacies.

"Who is coming to visit you?" one neighbor asked in surprise.

"Last night the Lord appeared to me in a dream and told me that He wanted to be my guest on Christmas Day. I am all prepared for His arrival," Conrad replied.

After the neighbors had left, Conrad sat waiting for his hallowed guest. While he waited, a beggar passed his window, ragged and half starved. Conrad called him in, fed him and gave him shoes for his nearly frozen feet. After the beggar had left, an old woman hobbled by carrying a sack of wood. Conrad served her dinner, let her rest before the fire, and then helped her on her way.

Again, he sat by the window waiting for his important guest. Suddenly, he heard the sobbing of a child. When he opened the door, he saw a frightened, cold youngster.

After some warm milk and soothing words, he reunited the child with its worried mother.

Once more he returned to his vigil, but night was falling fast. Where was the promised guest? Anxious and weary, Conrad dropped to his knees.

"Oh, Lord," he pleaded. "What has delayed you?" Then out of the silence came a voice:

"Conrad, be not dismayed, for three times I came to your friendly door. Three times my shadow crossed your floor.

I was the beggar with frost-bitten feet,

I was the woman given food to eat,

I was the child in the lonely street."
