Logan girls take second in conference

Logan's ladies took second place in the Cheyenne Conference Basketball Tournament Friday night in Phillipsburg after losing 72-42 to Eastern Heights.

"I am so very proud of the Lady Trojans and their second place finish in the Cheyenne Conference Tournament," said Coach Linda Nighswonger. "We faced an experienced, physical Mustang team and were not able to stay out of foul trouble.

"After being down by 19 points at half-time, we battled back to within 8 or 9 points, but went deeper into foul trouble and were unable to close the gap further.

"Thanks to all our fans for your support throughout the week."

Anne Hartman led scoring for the Lady Trojans with 9 points, followed by Savannah Sammons, 7; Jenny Noel and Aspen Larson,

5; Bethany Clements and Shaley Van Loenen, 4 each; Shelley Kemper and Jenny Archer, 3 each; and Megan Brumbaugh, 2.

Out of the team's 21 rebounds, honors went to Hartman with 6 and Sammons with 5.

Clements made 2 of the team's 7 steals.

Leading assists were Clements with 4 and Brumbaugh with 2. The team totaled 8.

The Lady Trojans will play Palco tonight in Logan, beginning at 4:30 p.m.
