Facts about Kansas highlight of lesson

By BEVERLY KINDLER

North Dividers Family and Community Education Unit met Jan. 20 with Betty Harper.

For roll call, each member gave a fact about, or described a point of interest in Kansas. Twelve members and one guest, Genieva Berry, were present. Ms. Berry became a member.

The annual Christmas party was held Dec. 16 at "Attitudes" in Norton. Each member brought a gift for the children at the Northwest Kansas Domestic and Violence Center at Hays. All were shown and then wrapped. Sherrill Wendel delivered the gifts to Hays. A nice thank-you was received and read from the center. The group had lunch together.

Twelve dozen cookies were furnished for the Red Cross Blood Mobile on Jan. 17. Those providing cookies were Marie Wendel, Lois Krauss, Sherrill Wendel and Nora Washburn.

The lesson, "Exploring Kansas History" was given by Fleta Hanlon.

Some interesting facts about Kansas include:

- Norton County is the location of a mine that has been mined continuously since 1910. The product, volcanic ash, or silica, has many uses.

- George Custer formed the famed Seventh Cavalry in 1866, at Ft. Riley. It was completely wiped out at the Battle of the Little Big Horn, ten years later.

- Pfeifer, is the home of the "Holy Cross Shrine" known as the two-cent church because the building was constructed using a two-cent donation on each bushel of wheat sold by members of the church.

- Cotton Wood Falls is the home of the oldest continuously used courthouse, built in 1873.

- The first state park was dedicated in 1959, at Kanopolis.

- The Dole Institute of Politics in Lawrence, has a stained glass flag that consists of 960 pieces, weighing one ton and rises 40 feet above the floor.

Members agreed that Kansas is an interesting state.

The hostess gift was drawn by Nora Washburn. The next meeting will be Feb. 17 with Fleta Hanlon.

The lesson will be "Activity for the Aged" given at the Norton Senior Center.

History of hymns studied at women's club meeting

By BEVERLY KINDLER

"Live, With a Song in Your Heart" was the theme for the meeting of the Mid Century Greater Federation of Women's Clubs at their Jan. 26 meeting.

Virginia Will was in charge of the round table discussion on "Heritage of Hymns".

Mrs. Will told members that Christians used to meet in secret because of their persecution, therefore, sang very little. The practice of singing in response to a chant or scriptural reading was introduced at Antioch early in the fourth century and the chanting of psalm verses became the responsibility of the congregation. During the Dark Ages hymns became a vehicle for promoting the spread of Christianity. During the Reformation, congregational singing became a part of the church service.

In the history of American hymnology, there have been many influences of Negro spirituals, evangelist Dwight L. Moody and the most prolific hymn writer in history, Fanny Crosby. One of the greatest hymn writers of the 18th century was Charles Wesley. The title, "Father of English Hymnology" goes to Isaac Watts who published about 750 hymns and psalms in four books.

Stories about specific hymns were shared by Darlene McEwen, Geraldine Packer, Carolyn Higgason, Lynn Nelson, Claire Ann Eppinger and Beverly Kindler.

Following each story, the group sang the song with Rosetta McFarland accompanying. In addition to group singing, the women's quartet, Virginia, Carolyn, Lynn and Kay Hawks, sang "Nearer My God To Thee". A taped presentation of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was played.

Members discussed plans for a veteran's project. Miss Kindler reported on the arts program. Members also learned that Feb. 3 was to be National Wear Red Day.

Ermalea Mason was hostess with Virginia Wil, co-hostess.
