Norton Shop and Save, Jamboree Foods, Dairy Queen, Adventures in Eating and Pizza Hut have donated prizes for the scavenger hunt. The child study club is for mothers with children 12 and under. The club is involved in community activities and supports children's events. Anyone who would like to help the club with cost of candy and eggs may do so by making their donation to Treasurer Elaine Gaer, 312 N. Norton Ave., Norton, Kan. 67654.

Program helps youth literacy

Dollar General's commitment to literacy began with the company's co-founder, J.L. Turner.

Mr. Turner only had a third grade education, but overcame those odds and helped build the well-known discount store chain. Since 1993, the Dollar General Literacy Foundation has increased the functional literacy of adults and children by providing grants to non-profit organizations dedicated to the advancement of literacy.

Head Start is a federally funded program that serves income-eligible 3 to 4-year old children and their families in 12 northwest Kansas counties. There are 18-20 children enrolled in the Norton Head Start program.
