JARED WAYNE LAUGHLIN

(Photo by Roy Skrdlant)

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

—Jeremiah 29:11 NIV

Pastor Terry L. and Bonnie K. Laughlin are very pleased to announce the graduation of their son, Jared Wayne Laughlin, from CrossRoads Christian School. Jared has been homeschooled from kindergarten through his senior year and is graduating with a 3.8 high school GPA.

Jared anticipates majoring in pre-med when he begins college but is also interested in meteorology and just recently qualified as a certified storm spotter. He has been on the leadership / ministry team for the Norton Teens For Christ Connection for three years. He will be going on his fourth summer mission trip with TFC in June. He went to Carey, MS (2003) to help with various building projects, Utica, IL (2004) to help repair tornado damage, Mexico (2005) to help build a church and will be going to the South to help with Hurricane Katrina clean-up and rebuilding this summer.

Jared has been accepted to the College of the Ozarks in Point Lookout, MO for the January, 2007 spring semester. This private Christian college, nicknamed Hard Work U., offers a great bargain to its students: you work on campus 15 hours per week (during the school year) plus two 40-hour workweeks (during school breaks) and your tuition is free. In addition, you can work on campus during the summer to pay for your room and board. The goal of the college is to graduate all its students debt-free so they will be free to follow God's call on their lives. Their five-fold mission stresses academic, spiritual, vocational, cultural and patriotic growth. They have been consistently ranked among the top colleges in the nation by magazines such as Newsweek and Time. College of the Ozarks accepts only 10 to 14% of its applicants on average each year.

Commencement Exercises for Jared with a message to the graduate by Pastor Terry Laughlin will be held at:
