ALMENA NEWS

By ESTHER MARBLE

Ike Shearer stopped a short while Thursday morning to visit his sister, Esther Marble. He told her that Galen Marble got bucked off his horse on May 27 and broke this right arm. It is in a cast but he is working but says it is a little hard to sign papers with his left hand.

On Friday, Alice Kuiper and Lois Schamber traveled to Hoxie to celebrate Lois and Ross's birthdays which would be on Saturday. They took a birthday cake along for the birthday occasion. Ross had moved from Salina to Hoxie a few weeks ago. He has a very nice apartment in the assisted living area. Alice also visited Pauline Laughry who is living there. Maybe some of you older friends will remember her.

Bill Swanson of Nebraska visited Esther Marble Friday morning. He was a friend of Ray's when they had a motorcycle club years ago. His wife died a year ago. Gordon Donaldson was also in the club.

June Fisher called Sunday afternoon to say she rolled her car the afternoon before, but was okay except she has a lot of bruises all over her body. She was wearing her seat belt and said that was what held her in the car.

Alberta Geil visited Esther Marble a short while Friday afternoon.

Our community was saddened by the death of Josey Shearer on Saturday. My sympathy goes out to his family.
