

4-H'ers will show off clothing talents at annual revue

This year's public 4-H fashion revue will be held at 7 p.m., Saturday at the 4-H Building.

Most members enrolled in the clothing project have completed their project work. Judging of clothing construction was Tuesday followed by buymanship later that night.

In the construction phase, 4-Hers will exhibit garments and articles they have made and also model outfits and accessories they have made. The 4-H clothing project also includes two buymanship phases. These 4-Hers select outfits from the ready-to-wear for their wardrobes.

The garments and articles that the 4-Hers have made will be on display at the 4-H Building during the fair.

Skylar Johnson looked intent as he answered questions from the buymanship judge last year.
