

As always, the quilts (right) made by the ladies of the parish were the highlight of the New Almelo Bazaar. Looking at the exquisite handiwork prior to the auction were, from left: Ruby Heikes, Darlene Day and Myrna (Mrs. Lyman) David. The fish pond (above) is always one of the most popular games at the bazaar. Checking to see what she caught are Hailee Scheetz and her mother Stacy. In charge of the game was JoAnn Long, who is shown coordinating inside with one of her helpers.

- Gardening and crops;

- The following accessory uses:
  - A commercial billboard or advertising sign shall not be permitted as an accessory use in the Residence District, except a temporary sign not over 25 square feet in area, located on the premises of a building or structure under construction, advertising the able. Prices are $25 and $20 respectively. Free blood pressures, blood sugar checks, and diabetic education will be done by Decatur EMS staff. Dr. Andrea, the most recent addition to the Decatur Health Systems medical staff, will be the guest at the United Methodist Church sponsored Kolache Coffee and will be available to do skin cancer checks at no cost to the individual. Please stop by and introduce yourself to Dr. Andrea.

Pat Foster, Broken Wheel Bar and Grill, is hosting a horseshoe tournament beginning at 9 a.m.. There will be a $1 entry fee which will be donated to the fire department and Emergency Medical Technicians. The categories are: 1. Men 20 years and older; 2. Women of all ages; and 3. Teens 19 years and younger. A first prize will be awarded in each category.

Gary Gawith is in charge of a Wobble Trap Shoot at the football field on the north edge of town. Shotguns and ammunition are the responsibility of the shooters.

Entertainment for kids includes train rides by Greg Otter, a dunk tank, a coin search (sponsored by THE Bank, Jennings), a Tug-O-War and a tractor pull. This year, for the first time, the tractor pull will be sanctioned for State Fair. It is open to children from ages 4 to 12 and awards will be given to the top three contestants in each age group. It is sponsored by Decatur County Farm Bureau.

The theme for this year's parade is "Small Towns Pullin' Together". It is hoped that area businesses and communities will participate by entering a pickup or other entry with the names of businesses and/or communities on a placard so tribute may be paid to friends and neighbors.

The local Czech museum, "new and improved", will be open throughout the day, free of charge.

The museum board is eager to show off the improvements made possible by donations, free labor and proceeds from the sale of the school property.

Kolaches (approximately 75 dozen) will be available for sale throughout the day. Because of the sale of the school building and the unavailability of the school ovens, baking kolaches became a major concern until Leanna Sloan, Hoxie, offered the use of the commercial ovens at the Main Street Inn, Hoxie.

Other events of the day include a cake walk, bingo, firemen's team barrel competition, a whole hog roast and an auction of items donated by area businesses. Raffle items donated by the firemen, include a television and a Surround Sound System. A portable DVD player will be given away during the auction. The event will conclude with a street dance with the Aaron Traffas Band, Manhattan.
