CORRECTION

A story about Kaitlyn Noone receiving two scholarships was printed in the Sept. 5 issue of The Norton Telegram. The story failed to mention which college Miss Noone received the scholarships from. It should have said the scholarships were awarded by Fort Hays State University. The mistake was a reporting error.

ALMENA NEWS

By ESTHER MARBLE
A little late but not forgotten. On July 28, Barbara Wassinger of Ness City came to spend Friday night with her mother, Rita Bieber, Calvert. Saturday morning they drove to Wichita to attend the festivities that John Bieber’s children, Chris and Jennifer, had planned to help their dad celebrate his 50th birthday. They did a lot of organizing and came up with a super cook-out on John’s north lawn. Rita’s nephew and niece, Richard and Mary Jane Farnsworth of Goodland came to join in the fun and laughter. So many of their friends were there and several came to Rita and asked if she remembered when they stayed at her house on different occasions. The different foods were fabulous and prepared by his kids. Barbara and Rita spent the night at a motel and returned home on Sunday. Barbara returned to her home in Ness City that evening. Suzanne Pfeifer and husband, Lance, also drove down from Hays. Eddie Wassinger drove over on Saturday to join the party. Lois Chambers and Alice Kuiper drove to Hoxie Thursday to visit their brother, Ross Reeves. Joyce Eckhart, of Logan and Ron and Cynthia Aubshon of Conway Springs, visited Jean Leuszler Thursday afternoon. It was a very special day as Joyce and Jean celebrated their Aug. 31 birthdays together. It was a full weekend for Esther Marble’s. Saturday Roxie and Emily Melia came to visit. Sunday was the Marble reunion. Brant Marble came Sunday and everyone went to the reunion. Blaine, Susie, Chance and Bryce Marble also attended. Sunday evening, Brant went to Long Island to visit Bill and LeRoy Godfrey. Roxie and Emily left for home Monday morning. Monday dinner guests of Esther were Brant Marble, Bryce Marble and Harold Shearer. Brant left for his home right after dinner.
