

Campbell family met in Oakley for reunion

Cousins from Florida to North Dakota and California to South Carolina descended on the Logan County 4-H Building in Oakley, Sept. 2 for the second official Hugh and Helen Campbell Reunion. After the James Campbell family singers performed a few numbers, Marita Campbell led the group in prayer. Then everyone dug into the roast beef with all the fixings. Fr. John Moeder was a guest and Fr. Michael Elan joined the group for dessert.

Old family photos taken in the 1940s, pictures of all the homes Hugh and Helen had lived in, and a family tree for each of the ten children with current pictures were displayed. Evelyn Pratt Wahl brought several of her quilts to share in remembrance of the quilting Grandmother Campbell did in the 30 years that the quilting ladies met in her basement.

A DVD of home movies taken in the 50s and 70s ran continuously for a trip down memory lane. All the Campbell girls and one sister-in-law plus three brothers-in-law were present. Of the 60 living cousins, 38 made the trip to the reunion with various family members in tow. Family members gabbed and gossiped and sat through round after round of group pictures taken in the afternoon. Though not mandatory, many attended the 5 p.m. liturgy at St. Joseph's Church as the Mass intention was for Hugh and Helen Campbell.

A light evening meal followed and the group agreed to meet again in 2009 with the James Campbell family planning the reunion.

Those attending were: From the Vivian Wegman Family: Vivian Wegman, Ed and Charlene Wegman, Virginia Dudley, and Elaine Stahl. From the James Campbell Family: Mary Brooks, Richard and Mary Schroeder, Joe Campbell, Eloise and Larry Long, Marita Campbell, Paula and Mike Flesher, Joan Long and Theresa Beiker.
