

Norton Community High School Homecoming

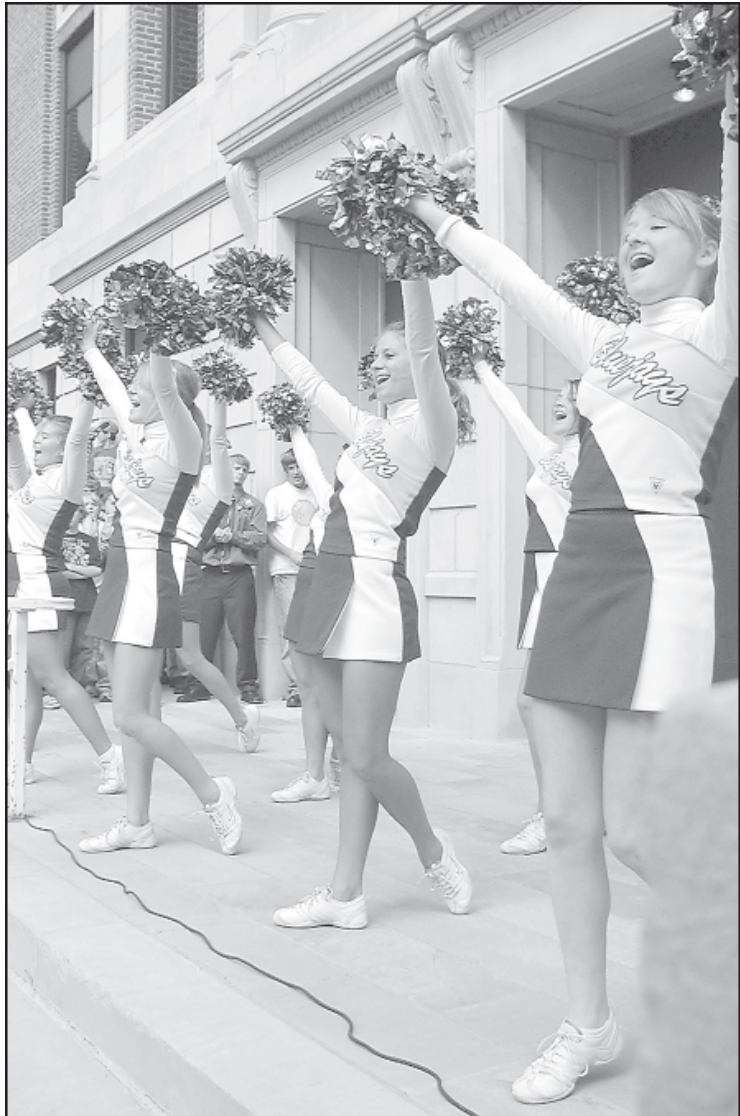

2006 Norton Community High School Homecoming Royalty were, from left, attendants Morgan Bailey, Lisa Jones, Lacey Roe, Queen Hannah Mills, King Jared Engelbert, attendants Blake VanEaton, Kent Mann and Nathan Broeckelman and, front, crown bearers Hadley Hauser and Levi Ellis.

Picked the best "Blue and Yellow" boy on Friday during Homecoming Week was Adam Myers.

The Norton twirlers Lisa Jones, Sara Porter and Karlynn Kent were "playing with fire" Friday night during the homecoming football game with Hill City as they presented a show with their fiery batons for the near capacity crowd.

Norton Community High School cheerleaders led the crowd in a rousing cheer at the pep assembly Friday before the homecoming game with Hill City.

Jim Broeckelman, father of senior football player, Nathan Broeckelman, addressed the crowd at the pep assembly.

Photos by
Dick Boyd &
Carolyn Plotts

A bubble-blowing Blue Jay fan on crutches was still able to show her school spirit at the homecoming pep assembly.

The Norton "troops were ready for battle" as they jumped into one big huddle on the sidelines, fired up and ready to defeat Hill City in the homecoming football game on Friday night.