2006 was closing fast. It was the last tournament of the year and as the faithful gathered for the occasion, they all agreed it was a prize worth capturing. The field was small by usual standards, but a quick look at the sign-in sheet revealed the quality was extremely high and all signs were "go".

As the first round got underway, it was obvious that all stops were pulled out and the quest for the 800 point game was underway. The team of Norman Walter and Wava Reams captured the first round honors and the initial lead. As usual, leads change fast in card tournaments. The team of Billy Keiswetter and Eldon Billips moved to the top of the board after capturing second round honors. The lead seemed to be following the high round winners as the team of Todd and Doyle Brooks took the lead after capturing third round honors. The half-way mark was coming up with round four and, as the scores were being posted, everyone stayed around to assess the situation. The team of Eleanor Jensen and Joyce Sumner had taken the honors, but for the first time, the lead didn't follow the high round winner as the team of Dee and Thelma Bushnell pushed to the top of the heap.

A quick look at the board had the top five teams bunched at the top with Keiswetter and Billips in secfourth; and rounding out the top mind, the bidding to start the final

The team of Magers and Jolly had also done that and been there before and were most gracious in receiving their honors and promised to return to defend their title.

Landowners, tenants need to check lease dates

An important date for landowners and tenants to remember this year is Jan. 30.

According to the Kansas Farm Lease Laws, this is a critical date ing. for notice of termination of a lease, unless a written lease specifically states another date. This applies to crop and pastureland.

For oral or written leases where a date is not specified in writing, you as a landowner must give notice for tenancy termination as follows: • Notice must be delivered at least 30 days prior to March 1.

• Termination of the tenancy must be given to take place on March 1. thing in writing to protect each • And this must be given in writ-

wheat has been planted already, then the termination will be set on the day following the last day of formed several example leases harvest or Aug. 1, which ever that can be used or can be adapted

Oral agreements are sometimes vague if a disagreement arises. In fice at (785) 877-5755 for more fact, oral lease agreements are usually only enforceable for one year. It is best to put together someparty and avoid misunderstandings. An excellent publication is If a fall seeded crop such as available on the topic called "Kansas Agriculture Lease Law".

On behalf of Prairie Land Electric Coop Inc., I want to thank the members for the hospitality shown to our employees during the recent ice storm. We also would like to thank all the farmers for the use of their tractors in getting our trucks to areas unreachable without their help. The employees really appreciated everything that was done for them and the patience shown during this difficult time.

As of January 16, our best estimate of poles that went down in the ice storm is 1850. The storm hit December 30, 2006 and we were able to restore everyone's power by January 12, 2007 (14 days later). We had 182 linemen and 7 inside help working on our system at one time restoring power. We had other cooperatives and contractors that came in to help during the restoration period. They are as follows:

Kaw Valley — Topeka, KS — 4 Linemen Brown Atchison — Horton, KS — 3 Linemen Rolling Hills — Ellsworth, KS — 5 Linemen Aquila — Phillipsburg and Concordia — 5 Linemen Solida Tree Service — Phillipsburg, KS — 9 Men Mid Plains Power, Inc., Grand Island, NE — 13 Employees C&H Power Line Inc., Dewey, OK — 47 Employees Razz Electrical Services — Lecompte, LA — 27 Employees KDM Power Line Constr. — Gilbert, LA — 42 Employees
