Barbara Bay of Arnold and Meredith Williams were Thursday callers of Novella Hewett.

Pastor Linda Knipping was a Thursday caller of Freda Hartford. Irene Coe attended the funeral service of her brother-in-law, Dale Coe, of Loomis, on Wednesday.

Kevin, Dan and Julie Harper attended the funeral for Lucy Dockins, Clyde, Kans., Jan. 8.

Oral Kniep went to the birthday party for Judy Nickell on Jan. 14, at the Community Building.

Dorothy and Arlyn Lambert went to Holdrege Monday to bring Arlyn's mother, Vera Lambert, to their home to stay with them for the next six weeks.

Marlene VanMatre called on Lawrence and Darlene Sheneman Monday morning.

Ethel Stagemeyer attended Judy Nickell's surprise birthday party Sunday afternoon.

Debbie and Teresa Gregg were luncheon guests of Ruth Stalder Sunday after church.

Roger Rikli went to Cambridge last Wednesday and had lunch with his mother, Edith Rikli.

Scott Inman enjoyed lunch with his father, Harold Inman, at the Senior Center on Wednesday.

Lana and Morris Mullis returned to their home in Ten Sleep, Wyo., Jan. 9. They had spent 2 1/2 weeks in Beaver City with Lana's mother, Erma Hall. They visited other relatives and friends while here.

Jay Hall, Red Cloud, came to Beaver City the weekend of Jan. 6 and 7, to visit with Lana and Morris before they returned home.

JoAnn Becker celebrated her birthday Jan. 12. Calls of greetings were received from Beaver City, Arapahoe, Ord, Lincoln and Omaha as well as Seabrook and Houston, Texas, New London, Minn., Los Angeles, Calif., and Denmark! She enjoyed a pizza supper with her husband, Nick; her mother, Donna Shafer; and brother, Mike Dreier before they all went to the Solomon Valley vs St. Cecilia basketball game. After the game they stopped back for birthday cake at the Becker home.

Eight ladies buckled their seatbelts and took a ride to Lenora for the Royal Tea Party Celebration on Saturday, Jan. 27, given by the Chatty Hatters Chapter of the Red Hat Society at the Lenora Senior Center. Attending were Cathy Anthony, Sheryl Patterson, Veda Wood, LaVerne Milner, Dorothy Ward, Marguerite Clark, Bee Nelson and Norma McCallister.

A recent excerpt from Health Focus by Decatur Health Systems said:

"Just as members of your family come and go, we lost one of our family members on Dec. 7. Ona Van Gundy passed away in Wichita after a short illness.

"Ona worked in our facility in the dietary department for approximately 11 1/2 years and became very important to our family. Even before she was formally hired she worked at our facility under the Green Thumb program for several years. She was willing to do whatever was asked of her and in a polite manner. Ona will be missed."

Birthdays and anniversaries: Tracey Hartzog - Feb. 2; Glen and Carolyn Strevey - Feb. 3; Francis and Arlene Hix - Feb. 4; Patty Stapp, Karen Bailey, Von and Joy Johnson - Feb. 6.

There will be three positions on the Norcatour City Council open for the general election Tuesday, April 3. The positions open are now held by Mark Bailey, Jim Plotts, and also Mike Helm's seat, as he has filled the position of mayor of Norcatour. Let's have some writers for the Norcatour City Council.

Sunday, Jan. 28, visitors of Virgil and Joyce Price were Randy Allen and Sherrie Regal. They enjoyed sharing a pizza and visiting.

The Norcatour Volunteer Firemen, wives, and friends once again did a bang-up job with their pizza fundraiser Sunday evening, Jan. 28. They put out a superior pizza and don't hold back on the toppers! They all work very hard on this fundraiser and we hope they raised lots of money for their department.

Speaking of pizza, a pizza party was held at Cedar Living Center in Oberlin on Sunday evening, Jan. 28. Picking up and taking the pizza from the Norcatour Volunteer Fire Department fundraiser were Bee Nelson, Dorothy Ward, Marguerite Clark, and Oran and LaVerne Milner. Joining them at Cedar Living Center were Frank and Velda Ward, Lora Linn Leichleiter, and Teresa Shaughnessy. Everyone had a great time and stuffed themselves on wonderful pizza.

Dozens of people were not put off by a little snow and ice Saturday night, Jan. 27. After all, the Jackson Brothers were in town and in full form. Delbert and Dallas Jackson are brothers of local resident Gerald Jackson and the late Arnold Jackson.

The band consisted of a keyboard, steel guitar, and electric guitar player/singer. They had a nice mix of country, pop, and instrumental, something to please everyone.

The café had a prime rib special in addition to the menu items. By the time the band revved up, there wasn't a table to be had. Joe and Brandy were getting chairs from mysterious places just to seat everyone at already crowded tables.

The Norcatour News was a bit small last week. The reason: people failed to get their news in! News can be left in the post office or café envelopes or may be sent by fax, email or mailed to the post office, all listed in the Norcatour News each week. The earlier the typists get it, the easier it is to get the paper ready. The News is like a collection plate — the more you put in, the more you get out of it!
