KANSAS CLASSIFIEDS Jayvee tennis captures second place

By DICK BOYD

The Norton Community High School junior varsity tennis team hosted the Norton JV Tournament on Sept. 8 and finished in second blace

Phillipsburg was the champion with 26 points, followed by Norton, 15; Colby, 14; Plainville,

"Playing at home definitely brought the best out of our girls and they all did a fantastic job," said head coach Lisa Henderson.

"I only wish that more people would have come out to support our girls. They've worked hard all season to improve and be the best players they can be. I think their performance truly showed just how far they've come.

"This was the only tournament that will be held here in Norton this year and everything went without a hitch. The weather was very nice and I was happy that we ended up having more teams compete than were originally scheduled.

"Colby did not have a No.1 doubles team so we had Kaitlyn Ross and Katie Scott from Norton compete for Colby. I'm really happy that Kaitlyn and Katie have gotten to fill in so much this year because they're both always excited and ready to play whenever needed. They did a nice job and worked well with each other.'

Meaghan Peterson played No.1 singles for the Lady Jays. She went 1-2 and placed third.

She lost 6-2 to Lauren Bethel, Colby: won 6-1 over Misha Hendricks, Plainville and lost 6-5(7-2) to Tristin Troyer, Phillipsburg.

"Meaghan struggled quite a bit with her serving in her first match," said Henderson. "Her second match went very well and I could tell that she was working harder to correct her mistakes."

Kayla Scheetz. They compiled a 2- medal. I'm so proud of her." 1 record to place second.

They defeated Kaitlyn Ross and Katie Scott of Norton, who were playing for Colby, by a 6-3 score; outscored Joselyn Wilkens and Kelsey Wyatt, Plainville, 6-5(7-5) and lost 6-0 to MaryAnn Schremmer and Chelsy Troyer, Phillipsburg.

"Kyra and Kayla were simply outstanding together on the court," said Henderson. "They communicated and cheered each other on really close matches but simply and their positive attitudes led them to victory.'

Alexis Mangold was the champion in No.2 singles with a perfect 3-0 record. She defeated Megan Dougherty, Colby, 6-5(7-3), shutoutAshleyMadden,Plainville,6-0 and outscored Chelsy Edwards, Phillipsburg, 6-1.

They lost 6-3 to Lauren Shoaff and Laura Juenemann, Colby; were edged 6-5(8-6) by Amanda Diaz and Krystal Wessel, Plainville and lost 6-4 to Ember Ward and Clara Coomes, Phillipsburg.

"Nicquel and Ashley had some couldn't pull ahead to win," said Henderson. "They both had some awesome shots at the net and I was extremely happy to see them moving around more and approaching the net so frequently. Most of our freshmen have been very hesitant to come up to the net and I think today was just the day that Micquel and Ashley decided to
