

OBITUARIES

Geneva DeYoung
Nov. 30, 1919 - Jan. 31, 2008

Geneva DeYoung, 88, died yesterday at the Andbe Home.

The daughter of John A. and Margaret "Maggie" (Zwiers) DeYoung, she was born Nov. 30, 1919, in Prairie View. She spent her life in service to others as a teacher and missionary.

A graduate of Almena High School, Central College in McPherson and Asbury College in Wilmore, Ky., Miss. DeYoung taught for six years in public schools in Kansas, before leaving the United States to serve as a missionary to South America.

In 1946, she traveled to Columbia to teach children. There she began worship services and a school in Barbosa.

Because of threats on her life, she moved from there and spent two years in Medellin teaching missionary children. Because of mounting persecution in Columbia, the Oriental Missionary Society asked her to go to Ecuador for a year and organize children's meetings.

That "one year in Ecuador" extended to 33 years of service. Miss DeYoung began her child evangelism work in January, 1953. Through the years, the neighborhood children's classes she started developed into new churches. She pioneered workshops in child evangelism and Christian education in OMS Ecuadorian churches where she trained national leaders in ministry. Women and children across Ecuador heard the story of Jesus through her faithful work.

When Miss DeYoung retired in 1986, she continued to share her heart for Hispanic people through leadership and encouragement to the Hispanic congregation at First United Methodist Church in Kissimmee, Fla., and later moved to the Good Samaritan Retirement Village in Orlando, Fla. In 2004, she returned to Kansas to the Andbe Home.

Miss DeYoung was preceded in death by her parents, John and Margaret DeYoung; her brother, John A. DeYoung, Jr.; her sisters, Mildred DeYoung Smith and Rosalie DeYoung Shepherd; and one nephew, David Eller Smith.

Survivors include: one sister, Imogene DeYoung of Mukileto, Wash.; and as a tribute to her lifelong love of children, she is survived by children everywhere.

Her nieces, Ruth Ann Shepherd, Mary John Dye and nephews, Randall Smith, Phillip and Mark Shepherd, Craig and Dwight Cottrill, grew up with "Aunt Geneva" as an integral part of their family circle.

She is survived by a number of great nieces and nephews, including a namesake, Geneva Pearl Smith. Across the world there are many missionary children and Ecuadorian children who grew up with "Aunt Geneva" as a central part of their lives because of her teaching and her kind life.

Visitation will be held from 4 to 8 p.m. Sunday at Enfield Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Monday at Enfield's with burial in Prairie View Cemetery. The services will be conducted by her niece, Dr. Mary John Dye, Senior Pastor of Hawthorne Lane United Methodist Church, Charlotte, N.C. and the Rev. Mark Shepherd, Pastor of Jeffersontown United Methodist Church, Jeffersontown, Ky.

Memorial contributions are suggested to OMS International for Ecuador Field, P.O. Box A, Greenwood, Ind. 46142.

Jail Log

Jan. 18 — Todd L. Peppard, Wichita, holding for Johnson County, released Jan. 19.

Jan. 25 — Kenneth Reed, Lawrence, holding for Hickory County, Mo.

Jan. 31 — Crystal Larsen, Norton, warrant arrest.

Municipal Court

Effective Jan. 1, 2008, in an effort to improve fine collections, Municipal Court will be issuing bench warrants with a cash bond equaling the amount of the delinquent amount due to the court, plus a $25 warrant fee. It is very simple. An individual will either pay the cash bond or go to jail until the next municipal court date. I hope those individuals owing municipal court payments will take this notice to heart and the court will not have to issue many warrants.

Sincerely,
Judge Jerry Hawks

Super snackins' for the big game

The biggest game of the professional football season is almost here.

If you are planning a Super Bowl party, what snacks will be on your sidelines? A little planning can help give your fellow fans a playing field of healthy snacks. Here are some ideas:

Offense - Place low-fat snacks around the TV area for fans to grab while watching the game. These snacks include baked chips, pretzels, veggies and low-fat dip, fruit and yogurt dip, and a festive salsa. When making creamy dips, use low or no-fat cream cheese and sour cream. Prepare hearty, yet healthy, soups to warm a cold day.

Defense - Keep food safety in mind when planning your party. Keep hot foods hot and cold foods cold. Wash your hands before preparing food.

Special Teams - Get up and move around during commercials and halftime. Go for a quick walk or toss around a football to re-energize and burn off some of those party snacks.

Touchdown! - Most importantly, have fun and know that you've scored a touchdown with your fellow fans by eating healthy at your party.

Here is a healthy soup recipe that you may want to try at this year's Super Bowl party:

Alphabet Soup
Ingredients:
1/2 cup beef bouillon
1/3 cup long grain rice
1/4 cup onion flakes
1/3 - 1/2 cup of any other shape pasta (curly, elbow)

missed as verification provided.
