

ALMENA NEWS

By FLETA HANLON
The Almena Community PRIDE Committee will hold a pancake supper fund raiser from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 16 at the Community Center. Admission is by donation with money raised going to help repair damages caused by vandalism to the public rest rooms in the roadside park. The disc golf course also suffered some damage. Two baskets were taken last fall and since then, another was taken. The pole and cement it was set in is gone. Surveillance cameras have been purchased and other damages are in the process of being repaired. Junior PRIDE is helping with the supper. The group will have on display the two Northern Valley “hoodies” they purchased to give to post prom. The “Welcome to Almena” signs are in place. One is in the park facing east and the other is just west of Highway 60 for those coming from the west. This has been a Junior PRIDE project from the beginning. The group designed the signs, painted them and paid for their part of the supplies. Junior PRIDE met Jan. 30 in the school cafeteria. They have a 20-minute activity period once a month. Twelve Junior PRIDE and four Senior PRIDE members were in attendance. The Almena TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) has changed times. They now meet Wednesdays in the Almena Senior Center. Weigh-in starts at 2:30 p.m. with the meeting beginning at 3 p.m. For more information call 669-2300. Fleta Hanlon received word that her brother-in-law, Lowell Bryant, is a patient at Stormont Vale Hospital in Topeka. He is recovering from pneumonia. He is a resident of Aldergate Retirement Home in Topeka. Mr. Bryant is a former Norton resident and husband of the late Helen (Engelhardt) Bryant. Lila Engelhardt visited with Marie Engelhardt at the Norton County Hospital on Feb. 7. She took her a birthday card for her 101st birthday, which was Feb. 8.
